

Assessment and Homelearning overview		Year 9 English
Assessment	Time	Assessment Details
AP1: 20 Marks knowledge from: -Knowledge Rich Writers -Silence to Speech 30 Marks for the writing of a speech that pupils have deconstructed, studied and written in class on a revised topic	40 mins per week on revision  30 Mins of Sparx Reader Per week	One 10 question quiz every Monday from learning from the KO from the previous week. This is to support your knowledge leading up to GCSE.
Key online resources: Knowledge Organiser:  Blank Organiser: Short How to video on LCSC and LCWC: Using the KO.pptx

Week	Date	Knowledge retrieval task	Activity/ Help resource
08	20/10/2025	All BLOCKS: Recall Tier 2 and 3 Vocabulary LCSWC: Learn the tier 2 and 3 vocabulary from silence to speech. Ensure you know what each word means - you can spell it and that you would be able to understand it in context Learn the definitions off by heart. Sparxreader: https://app.sparxreader.com/  Students are expected to complete a minimum of 30 minutes using Sparx reader each week	Knowledge Organiser <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="2">Block file: Recall Tier 3 Vocabulary</th> </tr> <tr> <th>Tier 2 Vocabulary</th> <th>Definition</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Interrogative sentence</td> <td>A question seeking information</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Simile</td> <td>A comparison using 'like' or 'as'</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Metaphor</td> <td>A direct comparison saying something is something else</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Anecdote</td> <td>A short personal story used to illustrate a point</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Connotation</td> <td>The ideas or feelings a word suggests</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Hyperbole</td> <td>A statement exaggerated for effect</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> information on how to login to Sparx reader is on Classcharts	Block file: Recall Tier 3 Vocabulary		Tier 2 Vocabulary	Definition	Interrogative sentence	A question seeking information	Simile	A comparison using 'like' or 'as'	Metaphor	A direct comparison saying something is something else	Anecdote	A short personal story used to illustrate a point	Connotation	The ideas or feelings a word suggests	Hyperbole	A statement exaggerated for effect
Block file: Recall Tier 3 Vocabulary
Tier 2 Vocabulary	Definition
Interrogative sentence	A question seeking information
Simile	A comparison using 'like' or 'as'
Metaphor	A direct comparison saying something is something else
Anecdote	A short personal story used to illustrate a point
Connotation	The ideas or feelings a word suggests
Hyperbole	A statement exaggerated for effect
09	3/11/25	Phase 1: Recall Tier 2 and 3 Vocabulary LCSWC: Learn the tier 2 and 3 vocabulary from Victorian Voices to Modern Change Ensure you know what each word means - you can spell it and that you would be able to understand it in context Learn the definitions off by heart. Sparxreader: https://app.sparxreader.com/	<table border="1"> <tbody> <tr> <td>Phase One: The Marginalised</td> <td>Content</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Context/ Ideas</td> <td>Victorian society placed women in domestic roles: 'duty' was obedience and service. Modern texts challenge inequality and demand safety and respect</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)</td> <td>dim-ly – faint or dull light toiled – worked very hard overseers – people in charge of workers grim-streaked – dirty, marked with lines of dirt lavish – very expensive and rich enveloped – fully covered or surrounded obedience – doing what you are told complacence – going along without resisting</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)</td> <td>Inference – working out hidden meaning. Example: 'ticking like candlelight' suggests fragile hopes. Juxtaposition – placing two opposite ideas side by side. Example: Clara's poverty vs Evelyn's wealth. Imperative – a command Example: 'Do your duty' tells women to obey</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Comparative Skills</td> <td>Whereas the Victorian text accepts women's limited roles, the modern text challenges unfairness.</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Phase One: The Marginalised	Content	Context/ Ideas	Victorian society placed women in domestic roles: 'duty' was obedience and service. Modern texts challenge inequality and demand safety and respect	Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)	dim-ly – faint or dull light toiled – worked very hard overseers – people in charge of workers grim-streaked – dirty, marked with lines of dirt lavish – very expensive and rich enveloped – fully covered or surrounded obedience – doing what you are told complacence – going along without resisting	Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Inference – working out hidden meaning. Example: 'ticking like candlelight' suggests fragile hopes. Juxtaposition – placing two opposite ideas side by side. Example: Clara's poverty vs Evelyn's wealth. Imperative – a command Example: 'Do your duty' tells women to obey	Comparative Skills	Whereas the Victorian text accepts women's limited roles, the modern text challenges unfairness.
Phase One: The Marginalised	Content
Context/ Ideas	Victorian society placed women in domestic roles: 'duty' was obedience and service. Modern texts challenge inequality and demand safety and respect
Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)	dim-ly – faint or dull light toiled – worked very hard overseers – people in charge of workers grim-streaked – dirty, marked with lines of dirt lavish – very expensive and rich enveloped – fully covered or surrounded obedience – doing what you are told complacence – going along without resisting
Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Inference – working out hidden meaning. Example: 'ticking like candlelight' suggests fragile hopes. Juxtaposition – placing two opposite ideas side by side. Example: Clara's poverty vs Evelyn's wealth. Imperative – a command Example: 'Do your duty' tells women to obey
Comparative Skills	Whereas the Victorian text accepts women's limited roles, the modern text challenges unfairness.

		Students are expected to complete a minimum of 30 minutes using Sparx reader each week	information on how to login to Sparx reader is on Classcharts
10	10/11/25	Phase 2: Recall Tier 2 and 3 Vocabulary  LCSWC: Learn the tier 2 and 3 vocabulary from Victorian Voices to Modern Change Ensure you know what each word means - you can spell it and that you would be able to understand it in context Learn the definitions off by heart. Sparxreader: https://app.sparxreader.com/  Students are expected to complete a minimum of 30 minutes using Sparx reader each week	<table border="1"> <tr> <td>Phase Two: Male Vulnerability</td> <td>Content</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Context / Ideas</td> <td>Victorians valued 'stiff upper lip' - men must hide emotions. Modern views emphasise dangers of repression and encourage openness.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Vocabulary (word - simple definition)</td> <td>man up - phrase meaning hide feelings because you are a man bottling it up - keeping feelings inside vulnerability - showing feelings or weakness repression - pushing down or hiding emotions coffin - box for dead body; metaphor for emotional death stiff upper lip - staying calm, not showing feelings</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)</td> <td>Metaphor - saying one thing is another to show meaning. Example: 'Repression is a coffin' means hiding feelings kills you inside. Imperatives - bossy verbs that give commands. Example: 'Smile through pain!' tells men to endure. Simile - comparing one thing to another using 'likes'. Example: 'sobbing like a babe' belittles men's emotions.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Comparative Skills</td> <td>Compare masculinity: strength = silence (Victorian) vs strength = honesty (modern).</td> </tr> </table> information on how to login to Sparx reader is on Classcharts	Phase Two: Male Vulnerability	Content	Context / Ideas	Victorians valued 'stiff upper lip' - men must hide emotions. Modern views emphasise dangers of repression and encourage openness.	Key Vocabulary (word - simple definition)	man up - phrase meaning hide feelings because you are a man bottling it up - keeping feelings inside vulnerability - showing feelings or weakness repression - pushing down or hiding emotions coffin - box for dead body; metaphor for emotional death stiff upper lip - staying calm, not showing feelings	Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Metaphor - saying one thing is another to show meaning. Example: 'Repression is a coffin' means hiding feelings kills you inside. Imperatives - bossy verbs that give commands. Example: 'Smile through pain!' tells men to endure. Simile - comparing one thing to another using 'likes'. Example: 'sobbing like a babe' belittles men's emotions.	Comparative Skills	Compare masculinity: strength = silence (Victorian) vs strength = honesty (modern).
Phase Two: Male Vulnerability	Content
Context / Ideas	Victorians valued 'stiff upper lip' - men must hide emotions. Modern views emphasise dangers of repression and encourage openness.
Key Vocabulary (word - simple definition)	man up - phrase meaning hide feelings because you are a man bottling it up - keeping feelings inside vulnerability - showing feelings or weakness repression - pushing down or hiding emotions coffin - box for dead body; metaphor for emotional death stiff upper lip - staying calm, not showing feelings
Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Metaphor - saying one thing is another to show meaning. Example: 'Repression is a coffin' means hiding feelings kills you inside. Imperatives - bossy verbs that give commands. Example: 'Smile through pain!' tells men to endure. Simile - comparing one thing to another using 'likes'. Example: 'sobbing like a babe' belittles men's emotions.
Comparative Skills	Compare masculinity: strength = silence (Victorian) vs strength = honesty (modern).
11	17/11/2025	Phase 3: Recall Tier 2 and 3 Vocabulary  LCSWC: Learn the tier 2 and 3 vocabulary from Victorian Voices to Modern Change Ensure you know what each word means - you can spell it and that you would be able to understand it in context Learn the definitions off by heart. Sparxreader: https://app.sparxreader.com/  Students are expected to complete a minimum of 30 minutes using Sparx reader each week	Video on how to use a knowledge organiser  Online knowledge organiser <table border="1"> <tr> <td>Phase Three: War Through the Centuries</td> <td>Content</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Context / Ideas</td> <td>Victorian writers glorified war as heroic sacrifice. Modern writers expose its cruelty and the human cost.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Vocabulary (word - simple definition)</td> <td>resolute - very determined phalanx - tight group of soldiers savagery - cruel, violent behaviour noble - admirable and good glorious - making people proud slaughterhouse - place of mass killing haunted - chased by bad memories</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)</td> <td>Metaphor - saying one thing is another. Example: 'a wall of steel against savagery' shows soldiers as strong and united. Juxtaposition - putting opposites together. Example: 'You sleep because they wake' highlights sacrifice. Rhetorical Question - a question with no answer, to make the reader think. Example: 'How many more must die?' Emotive Language - words that stir feelings. Example: 'slaughterhouse' creates horror.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Comparative Skills</td> <td>One writer glorifies sacrifice; the other condemns destruction.</td> </tr> </table> information on how to login to Sparx reader is on Classcharts	Phase Three: War Through the Centuries	Content	Context / Ideas	Victorian writers glorified war as heroic sacrifice. Modern writers expose its cruelty and the human cost.	Key Vocabulary (word - simple definition)	resolute - very determined phalanx - tight group of soldiers savagery - cruel, violent behaviour noble - admirable and good glorious - making people proud slaughterhouse - place of mass killing haunted - chased by bad memories	Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Metaphor - saying one thing is another. Example: 'a wall of steel against savagery' shows soldiers as strong and united. Juxtaposition - putting opposites together. Example: 'You sleep because they wake' highlights sacrifice. Rhetorical Question - a question with no answer, to make the reader think. Example: 'How many more must die?' Emotive Language - words that stir feelings. Example: 'slaughterhouse' creates horror.	Comparative Skills	One writer glorifies sacrifice; the other condemns destruction.
Phase Three: War Through the Centuries	Content
Context / Ideas	Victorian writers glorified war as heroic sacrifice. Modern writers expose its cruelty and the human cost.
Key Vocabulary (word - simple definition)	resolute - very determined phalanx - tight group of soldiers savagery - cruel, violent behaviour noble - admirable and good glorious - making people proud slaughterhouse - place of mass killing haunted - chased by bad memories
Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Metaphor - saying one thing is another. Example: 'a wall of steel against savagery' shows soldiers as strong and united. Juxtaposition - putting opposites together. Example: 'You sleep because they wake' highlights sacrifice. Rhetorical Question - a question with no answer, to make the reader think. Example: 'How many more must die?' Emotive Language - words that stir feelings. Example: 'slaughterhouse' creates horror.
Comparative Skills	One writer glorifies sacrifice; the other condemns destruction.

15	15/12/2025	Phase 3 and 4 : Recall Tier 2 and 3 Vocabulary LCSWC: Learn the tier 2 and 3 vocabulary from Victorian Voices to Modern Change Ensure you know what each word means - you can spell it and that you would be able to understand it in context Learn the definitions off by heart. Sparxreader: https://app.sparxreader.com/  Students are expected to complete a minimum of 30 minutes using Sparx reader each week	information on how to login to Sparx reader is on Classcharts <table border="1"> <tr> <td>Phase Three: War Through the Centuries</td> <td>Content</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Context / Ideas</td> <td>Victorian writers glorified war as heroic sacrifice. Modern writers expose its cruelty and the human cost.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)</td> <td>resolute – very determined phalanx – tight group of soldiers savagery – cruel, violent behaviour noble – admirable and good glorious – making people proud slaughterhouse – place of mass killing haunted – chased by bad memories</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)</td> <td>Metaphor – saying one thing is another. Example: 'a wall of steel against savagery' shows soldiers as strong and united. Juxtaposition – putting opposites together. Example: 'You sleep because they wake' highlights sacrifice. Rhetorical Question – a question with no answer, to make the reader think. Example: 'How many more must die?' Emotive Language – words that stir feelings. Example: 'slaughterhouse' creates horror.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Comparative Skills</td> <td>One writer glorifies sacrifice; the other condemns destruction.</td> </tr> </table> <table border="1"> <tr> <td>Phase 4: Inequality in social class</td> <td>Content</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Context / Ideas</td> <td>Victorian pro-capitalist views defend child labour as character-building. Modern perspectives attack inequality as cruel and corrosive.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)</td> <td>assure – tell someone confidently mills – factories where cloth is made grit – courage and toughness idleness – laziness inequality – unfair difference between people capitalism – system where businesses make profit exploitation – treating people unfairly for gain</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)</td> <td>Sarcasm – mocking tone. Example: 'Factories run on fairy dust' makes reformers sound foolish. Metaphor – comparing one thing to another. Example: 'Inequality poisons everything' suggests harm spreading. Direct Address – speaking straight to the reader. Example: 'You can choose differently!' Juxtaposition – showing extremes. Example: 'CEOs with bonuses vs cleaners with rent.'</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Comparative Skills</td> <td>Compare inequality as necessary (Victorian) vs inequality as toxic (modern).</td> </tr> </table>	Phase Three: War Through the Centuries	Content	Context / Ideas	Victorian writers glorified war as heroic sacrifice. Modern writers expose its cruelty and the human cost.	Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)	resolute – very determined phalanx – tight group of soldiers savagery – cruel, violent behaviour noble – admirable and good glorious – making people proud slaughterhouse – place of mass killing haunted – chased by bad memories	Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Metaphor – saying one thing is another. Example: 'a wall of steel against savagery' shows soldiers as strong and united. Juxtaposition – putting opposites together. Example: 'You sleep because they wake' highlights sacrifice. Rhetorical Question – a question with no answer, to make the reader think. Example: 'How many more must die?' Emotive Language – words that stir feelings. Example: 'slaughterhouse' creates horror.	Comparative Skills	One writer glorifies sacrifice; the other condemns destruction.	Phase 4: Inequality in social class	Content	Context / Ideas	Victorian pro-capitalist views defend child labour as character-building. Modern perspectives attack inequality as cruel and corrosive.	Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)	assure – tell someone confidently mills – factories where cloth is made grit – courage and toughness idleness – laziness inequality – unfair difference between people capitalism – system where businesses make profit exploitation – treating people unfairly for gain	Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Sarcasm – mocking tone. Example: 'Factories run on fairy dust' makes reformers sound foolish. Metaphor – comparing one thing to another. Example: 'Inequality poisons everything' suggests harm spreading. Direct Address – speaking straight to the reader. Example: 'You can choose differently!' Juxtaposition – showing extremes. Example: 'CEOs with bonuses vs cleaners with rent.'	Comparative Skills	Compare inequality as necessary (Victorian) vs inequality as toxic (modern).
Phase Three: War Through the Centuries	Content
Context / Ideas	Victorian writers glorified war as heroic sacrifice. Modern writers expose its cruelty and the human cost.
Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)	resolute – very determined phalanx – tight group of soldiers savagery – cruel, violent behaviour noble – admirable and good glorious – making people proud slaughterhouse – place of mass killing haunted – chased by bad memories
Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Metaphor – saying one thing is another. Example: 'a wall of steel against savagery' shows soldiers as strong and united. Juxtaposition – putting opposites together. Example: 'You sleep because they wake' highlights sacrifice. Rhetorical Question – a question with no answer, to make the reader think. Example: 'How many more must die?' Emotive Language – words that stir feelings. Example: 'slaughterhouse' creates horror.
Comparative Skills	One writer glorifies sacrifice; the other condemns destruction.
Phase 4: Inequality in social class	Content
Context / Ideas	Victorian pro-capitalist views defend child labour as character-building. Modern perspectives attack inequality as cruel and corrosive.
Key Vocabulary (word – simple definition)	assure – tell someone confidently mills – factories where cloth is made grit – courage and toughness idleness – laziness inequality – unfair difference between people capitalism – system where businesses make profit exploitation – treating people unfairly for gain
Key Literary Techniques (with definition + example)	Sarcasm – mocking tone. Example: 'Factories run on fairy dust' makes reformers sound foolish. Metaphor – comparing one thing to another. Example: 'Inequality poisons everything' suggests harm spreading. Direct Address – speaking straight to the reader. Example: 'You can choose differently!' Juxtaposition – showing extremes. Example: 'CEOs with bonuses vs cleaners with rent.'
Comparative Skills	Compare inequality as necessary (Victorian) vs inequality as toxic (modern).																						