Mission

To promote a culture of educational excellence, kindness and respect within our school and wider community. Where pupils and staff care about learning and each other, are committed to being their best and together confidently challenge barriers to learning. This is underpinned by our values; We Care, We Challenge, We Commit and our Fundamental British Values.

We Care – Being a responsible citizen in Fulwood and our wider community

- We are approachable, caring and inclusive
- We respect one another and show kindness to all
- We make the right choices even in difficult circumstances
- We speak politely and use our manners
 - We are responsible for our own physical and mental well-being and support others
 - We help other pupils, teachers and other adults where we can
 - We show tolerance for other faiths and religions and speak up for causes such as anti-bullying, equality and the environment
- We take part in charity events and volunteering in our community

We Challenge – Working together for excellence

- We challenge ourselves to be the best we can be
- We take opportunities to help each other in our studies
 - We understand the need for democracy and take part in school campaigns, debate and events
- We take time to find out about each other and our interests
- We own up to our mistakes and accept any consequences
- We show resilience when we find tasks hard
 - We use our individual liberty wisely and recognise that the actions of individuals and small groups can create great change
- We rise to a challenge

We Commit - Aspiring to be our best

- We are organised, efficient and set high expectations for ourselves and others
- We work hard and take pride in our work
- We have excellent attendance and punctuality
- We have the highest standards and always wear the right uniform
- We work hard in lessons and complete homework
 - We participate in extra-curricular activities
- We read every day
- We follow all school rules and the Rules of Law

Introduction

The purpose of this Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy is to ensure that every child who is a registered pupil at Fulwood Academy is safeguarded, protected from harm, and supported to achieve the best possible outcomes. The Department for Education (DfE) 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' (September 2026), states safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined for the purposes of this guidance as:

- Providing help and support to meet the needs of children as soon as problems emerge.
- Protecting children from maltreatment, whether that is within or outside the home, including online.
- Preventing the impairment of children's mental and physical health or development.
- Ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care.
- Taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.

This policy provides clear direction to all stakeholders regarding our expectations and legal responsibilities to safeguard and promote the welfare of all children attending Fulwood Academy.

Fulwood Academy fully recognises the contribution it can make to protect children from harm and to support and promote the welfare of all children who are registered pupils at our school. This policy applies to all members of the school community, including pupils, staff, governors, trustees, parents and carers, volunteers, contractors and visitors.

No single professional can have a full picture of a child's needs and circumstances. If children and families are to receive the right help at the right time, everyone who comes into contact with them has a role to play in identifying concerns, sharing information and taking prompt action.

The Children Acts 1989 and 2004 state that a child is anyone who has not reached their 18th birthday. Our commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children extends to all children who attend or visit Fulwood Academy.

1. There are three main elements to the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy:
 - Prevention – providing effective early support through Family Help, identifying unmet needs and vulnerabilities at the earliest opportunity, and working in partnership with families and external agencies to promote children's welfare and keep them safe.
 - Protection - ensuring all staff and volunteers are trained to recognise and respond to abuse, neglect and exploitation, remain professionally curious and vigilant, and act promptly where there are concerns that a child is suffering or is likely to suffer significant harm, in accordance with local safeguarding partner procedures.
 - Support – recognising the sensitive and complex nature of safeguarding and child protection, ensuring that children, families and staff receive appropriate support, and working with partner agencies to secure the best possible outcomes for children.

Aims

2. To ensure that all aspects of the school's work, and the actions of all stakeholders, contribute to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. The welfare of every child is paramount.
3. To emphasise that safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is everyone's responsibility and that all staff, governors, trustees and volunteers have a duty to protect children from harm and act in their best interests.
4. To detail the procedures for the safer recruitment, selection and ongoing suitability of staff, governors, trustees and volunteers.
5. To outline the professional standards and safe working practices expected of all staff, governors, trustees and volunteers when working with children.
6. To communicate clear procedures for recognising, responding to, recording and reporting safeguarding concerns, including abuse, neglect, exploitation, child-on-child abuse, extremism and radicalisation.
7. To support the mission, vision and values of the Fulwood Academy and Dunstone Education Trust: We Care, We Challenge, We Commit.
8. To ensure concerns are identified and acted upon at the earliest opportunity, working collaboratively with children, families, partner agencies and the wider safeguarding system to secure the best possible outcomes for children.

Terminology

9. Allegation is where it is alleged that a person who works with children has behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child, possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child or, behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates they may pose a risk of harm to children, or behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children.
10. Child and children refer to children and young people under the age of 18 years. However, the principles of the document apply to professional behaviours towards all pupils, including those over the age of 18 years. 'Child' should therefore be read to mean any pupil at the education establishment.
11. Child In Need (CIN) refers to a child who is unlikely to achieve or maintain, or to have the opportunity of achieving or maintaining, a reasonable standard of health or development without the provision of services by a local authority (Children Act 1989).
12. Children Absent from Education (CAE), refers to children whose attendance patterns, including repeated, prolonged or unexplained absences, may be an indicator of abuse, neglect, exploitation or other safeguarding concerns. Schools should have robust procedures in place to monitor attendance, identify patterns of concern and take appropriate action to safeguard children. Children who are absent from education, particularly on repeat occasions and/or for prolonged periods, and those already known to children's social care or with a social worker, may be at increased risk of harm. Schools must work with parents, carers, the local authority and partner agencies to promote regular attendance and ensure children receive the support they need.

Further information on schools' statutory duties can be found in the Department for Education's Children Missing Education guidance (DfE, 2016).

Guidance on attendance and safeguarding should also be read alongside the school's Attendance Policy and the latest Department for Education guidance on Working Together to Improve School Attendance.

13. Children Missing Education (CME) refers to children of compulsory school age who are not registered at a school and are not receiving suitable education otherwise than at school. A child going missing from education, particularly repeatedly and/or for prolonged periods, is a potential indicator of abuse, neglect, exploitation or other safeguarding concerns. Schools should have robust procedures for monitoring attendance, identifying patterns of absence, and working with parents, carers, the local authority and partner agencies to ensure children are safe, receive a suitable education, and access appropriate support where needed. Schools must fulfil their statutory duties regarding children missing education in accordance with the Department for Education's Children Missing Education guidance.

14. Child on child abuse occurs when children abuse other children. As outlined in KCSIE part 5, this is most likely to include, but may not be limited to:
 - Bullying (including cyberbullying)
 - Physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm
 - Sexual violence, such as rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault
 - Sexual harassment, such as sexual comments, remarks, jokes, and online sexual harassment, which may be stand-alone or part of a broader pattern of abuse
 - Upskirting, which typically involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without them knowing, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress, or alarm
 - Sharing nudes and semi-nudes (also known as youth produced sexual imagery)
 - Initiation/hazing type violence and rituals
 - Abuse in intimate personal relationships between children
15. Child protection (CP) refers to the processes undertaken to protect children who have been identified as suffering or being at risk of suffering significant harm (Children Act 1989).
16. Child sexual exploitation (CSE) and child criminal exploitation (CCE) are forms of abuse that occur where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance in power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child into sexual or criminal activity. Whilst age may be the most obvious, this power imbalance can also be due to a range of other factors including gender, sexual identity, cognitive ability, physical strength, status, and access to economic or other resources. In some cases, the abuse will be in exchange for something the victim needs or wants and/or will be to the financial benefit or other advantage (such as increased status) of the perpetrator or facilitator. The abuse can be perpetrated by individuals or groups, males or females, and children or adults. The abuse can be a one-off occurrence or a series of incidents over time and range from opportunistic to complex organised abuse. It can involve force and/or enticement as to gain compliance and may, or may not, be accompanied by violence or threats of violence. Victims can be exploited even when activity appears consensual, and it should be noted exploitation as well as being physical can be facilitated and/or take place online. (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026).
17. Contextual Safeguarding is an approach to understanding and responding to children and young people's experiences of significant harm beyond their families.
18. Domestic abuse is any type of controlling, bullying, threatening or violent behaviour between people in a relationship. It can seriously harm children and young people. Children can experience the effects of domestic abuse through seeing, hearing or experiencing its effects. It's important to remember domestic abuse:
 - Can happen inside and outside the home
 - Can happen over the phone, on the internet and on social networking sites
 - Can happen in any relationship and can continue even after the relationship has ended
 - Both men and women can be abused or abusers
19. Extra-familial harm refers to abuse and exploitation that occurs outside a child's family environment.

20. Extremism is vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also include in our definition of extremism calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country or overseas (Prevent strategy, Home Office, 2011).
21. Family Help: Any child may benefit from Family Help. Family Help provides support as soon as problems emerge at any stage of a child's life and includes targeted early help and, where appropriate, statutory support.
- is disabled or has certain health conditions and has specific additional needs
 - has special educational needs (whether or not they have a statutory Education, Health and Care plan)
 - has a mental health need
 - is a young carer
 - is showing signs of being drawn in to anti-social or criminal behaviour, including gang involvement and association with organised crime groups or county lines
 - is frequently missing/goes missing from education, home or care,
 - has experienced multiple suspensions, is at risk of being permanently excluded from schools, colleges and in Alternative Provision or a Pupil Referral Unit.
 - is at risk of modern slavery, trafficking, sexual and/or criminal exploitations at risk of being radicalised or exploited
 - has a parent or carer in custody, or is affected by parental offending
 - is in a family circumstance presenting challenges for the child, such as drug and alcohol misuse, adult mental health issues and domestic abuse
 - is misusing alcohol and other drugs themselves
 - is at risk of so-called 'honour'-based abuse such as Female Genital Mutilation or Forced Marriage
 - is a privately fostered child.
 - is pregnant and/or a parent
 - has exhibited early signs of abusive, violent or harmful behaviour
 - is at risk of exploitation, modern slavery or trafficking
 - has been repeatedly removed from the classroom
 - is on a part-time timetable
22. Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) is a procedure involving partial or total removal of the external female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs. It is illegal in the UK and a form of child abuse (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026).
23. Harmful Sexual Behaviour: Refers to developmentally inappropriate, problematic or abusive sexual behaviour displayed by children and young people that may be harmful to themselves or others. Harmful sexual behaviour exists on a continuum, ranging from inappropriate sexualised behaviour to serious sexual assault, and should be recognised, responded to and managed in line with safeguarding and child protection procedures.
24. Ideology is defined as a set of beliefs (Prevent Strategy, Home Office, 2011).
25. Low-level concern is defined as any concern had about an adult's behaviour towards, or concerning, a child that does not meet the harms threshold, or is otherwise not serious enough to consider a referral at the time of its reporting. Low-level concerns refer to behaviour on the part of a staff member towards pupils that is considered inappropriate in line with statutory safeguarding advice.

26. Mental health problems can affect many of our children and young people. These include depression, anxiety and conduct disorder and self-harm and often have a direct response to what is happening in their lives. All staff should be aware that mental health problems can, in some cases, be an indicator that a child has suffered or is at risk of suffering abuse, neglect or exploitation. If staff have a concern about a child's mental health that is also a safeguarding concern, then immediate action should be taken.
27. Online Safety: Refers to the measures taken to protect children when they are using technology, including the internet, social media, online gaming, mobile devices and artificial intelligence (AI). It includes protecting children from online abuse, exploitation and harmful content, contact, conduct and commercial risks, while educating them to use technology safely, responsibly and respectfully. Online safety forms an integral part of safeguarding and child protection.
28. Parent refers to birth parents and other adults who have legal responsibility for the child, for example stepparents, foster carers and adoptive parents or anyone with parental responsibility or who is acting in loco parentis.
29. Professional Curiosity: Professional curiosity is the capacity and communication skill to explore and understand what is happening within a child's life rather than making assumptions.
30. Radicalisation refers to the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and forms of extremism leading to terrorism (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026).
31. Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined for the purposes of this policy as:
 - providing help and support to meet the needs of children as soon as problems emerge;
 - protecting children from maltreatment, whether within or outside the home, including online;
 - preventing the impairment of children's mental and physical health or development;
 - ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care; and
 - taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes.
32. Staff and adults refer to all those who work with pupils in an educational establishment, in either a paid or unpaid capacity. This would also include, for example, those who are not directly employed by the school or setting, e.g., local authority staff, sports coaches, governors, contractors or trustees.
33. Terrorism is defined as an action that endangers or causes serious violence to a person/people; causes serious damage to property; or seriously interferes or disrupts an electronic system according to the Terrorism Act 2000 (TACT 2000). The use or threat must be designed to influence the government or to intimidate the public and is made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious, or ideological cause (Prevent Duty Guidance, Home Office, 2015, updated 2021).

Role of the local governing body and Trustees

34. The school's local governing body and Trustees will ensure that a whole-school approach is taken to safeguarding. This means ensuring safeguarding and child protection are at the forefront and ultimately, all systems, processes and policies operate with the best interests of the child at their heart. Where there is a safeguarding concern, the school's local governing body and school leaders will ensure the child's wishes and feelings are considered when determining what action to take and what services to provide. Systems should be in place for children to express their views and give feedback.
35. The local governing body is expected to:

- Monitor the school's compliance with the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy and ensure that it is provided to and read by all staff – including temporary staff and volunteers on induction
- Ensure all staff who work directly with children read at least Part One of Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE 2026), and that staff who do not work directly with children also read Part One, with appropriate arrangements in place to support all staff in understanding and discharging their safeguarding responsibilities. Staff working directly with children should also read Annex B or Part Five, where appropriate.
- Have a lead person for safeguarding and child protection on the governing body who liaises with the principal and designated safeguarding lead (DSL) on these matters
- Ensure the views, wishes and feelings of children are heard, recorded and taken into account when safeguarding decisions are made.
- Ensure that the school contributes to inter-agency working in line with the statutory guidance Working together to safeguard children (DfE, 2026) including providing a coordinated offer of Family Help and appropriate support where additional needs are identified, contributing to inter-agency plans to provide additional support to children subject to child protection plans and allowing the local authority to conduct a section 17 or section 47 assessment
- Ensure the school understands and fulfils its responsibilities in relation to Family Help, working collaboratively with safeguarding partners to identify and support children and families at the earliest opportunity.
- Recognise the importance of information sharing between professionals and local agencies
- Ensure relevant staff have due regard to the relevant data protection principles, which allow them to share (and withhold) personal information, as provided for in the Data Protection Act 2018
- Ensure that school systems and procedures take into account the procedures and practice of the local authority as part of the inter-agency safeguarding procedures set up by the Safeguarding Partners
- Ensure that the school operates robust safer recruitment procedures and fulfils its statutory duty to ensure that appropriate checks are carried out on all staff and volunteers at the school
- Ensure that the school has clear steps for dealing with allegations of abuse against members of staff and volunteers that comply with locally agreed guidance and Keeping children safe in education (2026)
- Ensure that the school has clear steps for dealing with low level concerns raised against members of staff and volunteers that comply with locally agreed guidance and Keeping children safe in education (2026)
- Ensure the Staff Code of Conduct is upheld and provided to all staff including temporary members of staff
- Ensure that a senior leader(s) (designated safeguarding lead) in the school is designated with lead responsibility for dealing with child protection issues who will provide support to staff members to carry out their safeguarding duties and liaise closely with other services such as children's social care and where appropriate Channel co-ordinators/police practitioners
- Ensure that the designated safeguarding lead(s) within school take part in regular training from relevant agencies including local Safeguarding Partners
- Ensure that a senior leader in the school is designated to promote the educational achievement of children who are looked after by the local authority and to ensure that this person has appropriate training
- Ensure the school, in the exercise of its function, fulfils its duty to have "due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism"
- Ensure that the designated safeguarding lead(s) receives regular training from appropriate agencies with regard to the Prevent agenda and raising awareness and vigilance to reduce extremism and protect vulnerable people from radicalisation

- Ensure there are procedures in place to make a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service if a person in regulated activity has been dismissed or removed due to safeguarding concerns, or would have been had they not resigned (this is a legal duty and failure to refer when the criteria is met is a criminal offence)
- Ensure all staff receive safeguarding and child protection training (including online safety) at induction, regular safeguarding updates and at least annual safeguarding training, in accordance with KCSIE 2026.
- Ensure that staff have the skills, knowledge and understanding necessary to keeping looked after children safe through provision of training on child protection issues
- Ensure appropriate safeguarding procedures and responses are in place for children who are absent from education, particularly where absences are repeated, prolonged or unexplained.
- Ensure there are effective procedures in place to respond to child-on-child abuse, including sexual violence, sexual harassment and harmful sexual behaviour.
- Ensure there is a clear accountability for the commissioning and/or provision of the services designed to safeguard and promote the welfare of children
- Ensure school staff fulfil their statutory duty to report to the police any discovery that female genital mutilation appears to have been carried out on a girl under 18
- Where services of activities are provided on the school premises by another body, ensure the body concerned has the appropriate policies and procedures in place in regard to safeguarding children and child protection and liaises with the school on these matters where appropriate
- Ensure it considers how children may be taught about safeguarding, including online, through teaching and learning opportunities, as part of providing a broad and balanced curriculum. This may include covering relevant issues through personal, social and health education (PSHE), and/or through relationship, sex and health education (RSHE)
- Ensure the school has appropriate filters and monitoring in place to ensure children are safeguarded from potentially harmful and inappropriate online material. Ensure that the effectiveness of the school's filtering and monitoring systems is regularly reviewed and that governing bodies receive appropriate assurance that these systems remain effective and proportionate.
- Ensure that safeguarding is embedded throughout the school's culture and that all policies, procedures and practices operate in the best interests of the child.
- Ensure appropriate scrutiny and challenge is provided to school leaders in relation to safeguarding arrangements, including the effectiveness of safeguarding policies, procedures, training, record keeping and multi-agency working.

36. For the purposes of accountability, the governing body will receive a termly update on safeguarding as part of the Standards Report.

Role of the Principal

37. The principal is expected to:

- Ensure that the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy and procedures are implemented and followed by all staff
- Ensure the Designated Safeguarding Lead(s) (their responsibilities are set out in Appendix 1) is given the time, funding, training, resources, and support to provide advice and support to other staff on child welfare and child protection matters, to take part in strategy discussions and inter-agency meetings – and/or to support other staff to do so – and to contribute to the assessment of children.
- Ensure that effective systems are in place to identify children who may benefit from Family Help and that appropriate referrals and multi-agency support are coordinated at the earliest opportunity.

- Identify a designated teacher with responsibilities for promoting the educational achievement of looked after and previously looked after children (CLA) who is expected to undertake appropriate training (their responsibilities are set out in Appendix 2)
- Ensure all staff receive appropriate safeguarding and child protection training (including online safety) at induction, regular safeguarding updates and at least annual safeguarding and child protection training to provide them with the skills and knowledge required to safeguard children effectively.
- Act as the case manager who will liaise with the local authority designated officer (LADO) in the event of allegations of abuse being made against a member of staff or volunteer
- Ensure that all staff feel able to raise concerns about poor or unsafe practice and that such concerns are handled sensitively and in accordance with the whistleblowing procedures
- Ensure that all staff feel able to raise concerns relating to the behaviours or actions of staff members or volunteers and ensure there is a process for staff to follow to raise such concerns
- Ensure that there is an agreed recording mechanism in place for monitoring allegations against staff
- Ensure that pupils' safety and welfare is addressed through the curriculum
- Ensure appropriate arrangements are in place to ensure staff fulfil their statutory duty to report to the police any discovery that Female Genital Mutilation appears to have been carried out on a girl under 18
- Ensure the school has arrangements in place to fulfil its duty to have 'due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism'
- Ensure the school has robust arrangements in place to monitor attendance and respond to children who are absent from education, particularly where absences are repeated, prolonged or unexplained, recognising that this may be an indicator of abuse, neglect or exploitation.
- Where applicable, ensure the school fulfils its responsibility to complete the Section 57/175 Audit in liaison with the Safeguarding Partners
- Ensure the school maintains and regularly reviews an appropriate Prevent risk assessment and implements proportionate actions to reduce identified risks.
- Ensure the school's Single Central Record is maintained in accordance with statutory requirements and is regularly reviewed to ensure compliance with safer recruitment legislation.
- Ensure appropriate filtering and monitoring systems are in place, regularly reviewed, and effective in safeguarding children from harmful online content, contact, conduct and commercial risks.
- Promote a whole-school safeguarding culture where safeguarding and child protection are understood to be everyone's responsibility and where children are encouraged to share any concerns or worries.
- Ensure that the wishes, feelings and lived experiences of children are heard, recorded and taken into account when decisions affecting their safety and welfare are made.

Role of the designated safeguarding lead(s)

38. The designated safeguarding lead should be a member of the senior leadership team and their responsibilities will be set out in their job description (Appendix 1).
39. All safeguarding concerns, suspicions and disclosures are reported to the school's designated safeguarding lead for safeguarding and child protection.
40. The designated safeguarding lead will:
 - Have a working knowledge of how the local authority conducts a child protection case conference and a child protection review conference and be able to attend and contribute to these effectively when required to do so
 - Ensure each member of staff has access to and understands the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and related safeguarding procedures. Ensure that all staff who work directly with children have read at least Part One of Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE, 2026), and that staff who do not work directly with children have also read Part One, with appropriate support in place to enable all staff to understand and discharge their safeguarding responsibilities.

- Ensure all staff receive appropriate safeguarding and child protection training (including online safety) at induction, regular safeguarding updates and at least annual safeguarding and child protection training.
- Support the governing body and principal in ensuring appropriate filtering and monitoring systems are in place, regularly reviewed and effective in safeguarding children from harmful online content, contact, conduct and commercial risks.
- Be alert to the needs of children in need, children with SEND, young carers, children with a social worker, looked after and previously looked after children, and any other children who may be particularly vulnerable.
- Keep detailed, accurate, secure records of concerns and referrals
- Promote a child-centred safeguarding culture by ensuring the wishes, feelings and lived experiences of children are heard, recorded and taken into account when safeguarding decisions are made.
- Promote professional curiosity amongst staff and support them in recognising and responding to emerging safeguarding concerns.
- Ensure the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy is available publicly and parents are aware of the fact that referrals about suspected abuse or neglect may be made and the role of the school in this
- Where applicable, complete the local authority 157/175 Audit
- Complete an annual Prevent risk assessment
- Link with appropriate outside agencies to ensure staff receive training on the Prevent agenda, and the means by which to identify extremism and prevent radicalisation and what to do to support them
- Understand the Prevent escalation process and Channel Panel referral system
- Keep a record of staff attendance at safeguarding and child protection training
- Consider whether it is appropriate to share any information with the new school or college in advance of a pupil leaving, in addition to the child protection file. Keeping children safe in education (DfE 2026), gives the example of information that would allow the new school or college to continue supporting a victim of abuse and have the appropriate support in place for the pupil's arrival
- Where children leave the school, ensure their child protection file is copied for any new school or college as soon as possible but transferred separately from the main pupil file, ensuring secure transit and ensuring the receiving school confirms receipt and the transfer is recorded.
- Understand the local assessment process for identifying children who may benefit from Family Help, including community-based Family Help assessments and statutory children's social care assessments.
- Promote early identification of need and support staff in recognising children who may benefit from Family Help or statutory intervention.
- Take the lead in coordinating Family Help support where appropriate, ensuring children and families receive the right help at the earliest opportunity through effective multi-agency working.
- Ensure school staff are aware of their statutory duty to report to the police any discovery that female genital mutilation appears to have been carried out on a girl under 18
- Where applicable, ensure that the school has suitably trained key adults in order to fulfil its obligations under Operation Encompass
- Where applicable, ensure that the school's commitment to Operation Encompass is known throughout the school community via the means of staff training, parental letters, posters and the school website

41. In managing referrals, the designated safeguarding lead will:
 - Refer all cases of suspected abuse to the local authority children's social care team and:
 - The local authority designated officer (LADO) for child protection concerns for all cases which concern a staff member
 - Disclosure and Barring Service (cases where a person is dismissed or left due to risk/harm to a child)
 - Work with Children's Social Care, the Police and other safeguarding partners in accordance with local safeguarding procedures and national guidance, including contacting the police immediately where a child is at immediate risk of harm or a criminal offence may have been committed.
 - Liaise with the principal to inform them of issues, especially on-going enquiries under section 47 of the Children Act 1989 and police investigations
 - Act as a source of support, advice and expertise to staff on matters of safety and safeguarding and when deciding whether to make a referral by liaising with relevant agencies
42. At least one deputy designated safeguarding lead will be identified in school and trained to the same standard as the designated safeguarding lead. The designated safeguarding lead will, however, take lead responsibility.
43. During term time, the designated safeguarding lead and/or deputy designated safeguarding lead will always be available (during school hours) for staff to discuss safeguarding concerns. Appropriate cover arrangements will be in place during periods of absence and for activities taking place outside normal school hours or during school holidays, ensuring that safeguarding advice and support remain available whenever required.

Role of staff

44. All staff have a responsibility to provide a safe environment in which children can learn and should consider, at all times, what is in the best interests of the child.
45. All staff have a responsibility to identify children who may benefit from Family Help, who are suffering, or are likely to suffer, significant harm or who express extremist ideologies and are thus vulnerable to radicalisation and to take appropriate action, working with other services as needed.
46. All staff are expected to:
 - Read at least Part One of Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE, 2026). Staff who work directly with children should also read Annex B or Part Five where appropriate to their role.
 - Be aware of systems within the school which support safeguarding (e.g. Safeguarding and Child Protection policy, Staff Code of Conduct, identity and role of the designated safeguarding lead) and how to report safeguarding concerns
 - Be aware of the Family Help process and understand their role in identifying children who may benefit from Family Help, sharing information appropriately and working with the Designated Safeguarding Lead and partner agencies to secure the right support at the earliest opportunity. The following indicators help staff recognise the potential need for early help:
 - The child is showing signs of being drawn in to anti-social or criminal behaviour, including gang involvement and association with organised crime groups
 - The child is at risk of modern slavery, trafficking or exploitation
 - The child is showing early signs of abuse and/or neglect
 - The child is at risk of being radicalised or exploited
 - The child is a privately fostered child
 - The child is disabled or has certain health conditions

- The child has SEND
- The child has a mental health need
- The child is a young carer
- The child is pregnant and/or a parent
- The child has exhibited early signs of abusive or harmful behaviour
- The child has been repeatedly removed from lessons
- The child is on a part-time timetable
- The child has a parent in custody
- The child is affected by domestic abuse
- Be aware that children may not feel ready or know how to tell someone they are being abused, exploited or neglected, and that this should not prevent staff from having professional curiosity and discussing concerns with the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
- Maintain professional curiosity and speak to the Designated Safeguarding Lead if something does not feel right, even where there is no disclosure.
- Exercise professional challenge where appropriate and escalate concerns where they believe a child remains at risk.
- Listen to children, take their wishes and feelings seriously, and reassure them that concerns will be taken seriously and acted upon.
- Be aware of the process for making referrals to children's social care and for statutory assessments that may follow a referral, along with the role they might be expected to play in such assessments
- Be familiar with, and implement, safe working practices outlined in this policy (Appendix 3) and other school procedures
- Be familiar with and alert to the key indicators of abuse, neglect, and vulnerability to radicalisation
- Take all reasonable steps to safeguard children and minimise the risk of harm both within and beyond the school environment, including online.
- Ensure they take all reasonable steps to challenge extremist ideologies
- Contribute to a supportive culture where children and young people are able to report concerns
- Involve the appropriate member(s) of staff when a child informs them that he/she is being abused (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026)
- Report any abuse, suspected abuse, or concerns regarding extremism/radicalisation to the designated safeguarding lead(s) immediately and, where required, support social workers to take decisions about individual children
- Report any concerns regarding the behaviour of an adult working at the school to the principal; and if the concern is regarding the principal, then report this to Chair of Trustees.
- Undertake annual safeguarding and child protection and Prevent training
- Maintain an attitude of 'it could happen here'
- Promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.
- Comply with the mandatory duty to report to the police any known cases of Female Genital Mutilation in girls under the age of 18 and inform the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
- Discuss any concerns with the designated safeguarding lead relating to possible indicators that a child may be vulnerable to female genital mutilation
- Be aware that safeguarding issues can manifest themselves via child-on-child abuse. This is most likely to include, but may not be limited to:
 - Bullying (including cyberbullying)
 - Physical abuse such as hitting, kicking, shaking, biting, hair pulling, or otherwise causing physical harm

- Sexual violence, such as rape, assault by penetration and sexual assault
 - Understand the school's online safety expectations, including filtering and monitoring arrangements, and promote the safe, responsible and respectful use of technology.
 - Harmful sexual behaviour and sexual harassment, such as sexual comments, remarks, jokes and online sexual harassment, which may be stand-alone or part of a broader pattern of abuse
 - Upskirting, which typically involves taking a picture under a person's clothing without them knowing, with the intention of viewing their genitals or buttocks to obtain sexual gratification, or cause the victim humiliation, distress or alarm
 - Sharing nudes and semi-nudes (also known as youth produced sexual imagery)
 - Abuse in intimate personal relationships between children.
 - Initiation/hazing type violence and rituals
- Be clear as to the school's policy and procedures with regards to child-on-child abuse (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026)

Confidentiality

47. All staff are expected to:

- Ensure that information relating to children is handled sensitively, securely and in accordance with data protection legislation, recognising that safeguarding information should only be shared on a need-to-know basis.
- Seek advice from the Designated Safeguarding Lead (or deputy) if they are unsure whether safeguarding information should be shared, whilst recognising that fear about sharing information should never stand in the way of protecting a child.
- Share information appropriately with those who need to know in order to safeguard and promote the welfare of children, in line with the UK GDPR, the Data Protection Act 2018 and local safeguarding procedures.
- Never promise a child that information disclosed will be kept confidential. Staff should explain that information will only be shared with those who need to know in order to help keep them safe.

48. School leaders should ensure that all staff understand that the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018 do not prevent the sharing of information where there is a lawful basis to do so in order to safeguard and promote the welfare of children. Staff who need to share special category personal data should understand the relevant safeguarding processing conditions and follow the Information Sharing Advice for Practitioners and the Seven Golden Rules of Information Sharing.

Safeguarding education for pupils to build resilience, awareness and keep children safe

49. The school recognises that children who have high self-esteem, confidence, trusted relationships with adults and supportive friendships are more likely to recognise concerns, seek help when needed and develop the resilience to keep themselves safe.

50. The school will therefore:

- Establish and maintain an ethos where pupils feel secure and are encouraged to talk, and are listened to
- Ensure that pupils know that there are adults in the school who they can approach if they are worried or are in difficulty

- Ensure pupils are aware of the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy and the designated safeguarding lead(s)
- Provide a broad and balanced curriculum which promotes the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental, and physical development of children and young people
- Provide a broad, balanced and inclusive curriculum, including Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) education and Relationships, Sex and Health Education (RSHE), which equips pupils with the knowledge, skills and confidence to recognise abuse, neglect and exploitation, build healthy relationships, manage risk, understand consent, and know how and where to seek help.
- Embed opportunities for children and young people to learn right from wrong, mix and share with children and value others' views, know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and challenge negative attitudes and stereotypes
- Promote community cohesion through partnership work and community service activities
- Ensure appropriate filtering and monitoring systems are in place and regularly reviewed to safeguard children from harmful or inappropriate online content, contact, conduct and commercial risks whilst supporting teaching and learning.
- Deliver a progressive online safety curriculum that enables pupils to understand how to stay safe online, recognise online abuse and exploitation, manage online relationships, critically evaluate online content, understand the safe use of social media, gaming and emerging technologies, including generative artificial intelligence (AI), and know how to report concerns.
- Implement systems to ensure children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet in school, including establishing appropriate levels of filtering
- Embed the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs in the school curriculum and all activities in and out of school
- Ensure that, wherever possible, every effort is made to establish effective working relationships with parents and colleagues from other agencies
- Make arrangements for consulting with and listening to pupils through the pupil council, displays and suggestion boxes. Provide opportunities for pupils to express their views, share worries and discuss sensitive issues, including safeguarding, healthy relationships, online safety, extremism and discrimination, within a safe, supportive and respectful environment.
- Teach pupils about safeguarding in an age-appropriate way, including recognising abuse, neglect and exploitation, understanding healthy and respectful relationships, consent, online safety, mental health and wellbeing, and how to seek help from trusted adults.
- Ensure pupils know how to report concerns, access support and understand that all concerns will be taken seriously and responded to appropriately.

Safeguarding information for parents

51. The school will ensure that the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy is available publicly via the school website. Parents and carers will be made aware that the school has a statutory duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and that, where appropriate, referrals may be made to Children's Social Care and/or other safeguarding agencies where there are concerns that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, abuse, neglect, exploitation or is vulnerable to radicalisation.
52. The school values positive partnerships with parents and carers and will work collaboratively with families wherever possible to promote the safety, wellbeing and welfare of children. Parents and carers are expected to support the school's ethos and Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy by demonstrating mutual respect and tolerance for all, promoting the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs, and rejecting all forms of discrimination, abuse and extremism.

Emergency contacts for children

53. Wherever possible, the school will hold more than one emergency contact number for each pupil. This goes beyond the legal minimum and is good practice, enabling the school to contact a responsible adult quickly where a child is absent from education and there are welfare and/or safeguarding concerns, or where contact is required in an emergency.
54. For children who are looked after, emergency contact information should include the child's social worker, carers and, where appropriate, the Virtual School (Virtual School Head), in accordance with the child's care arrangements.

Use of school or college premises for non-school/college activities

55. Where the governing body or Trustees hire or rent out school premises to organisations or individuals (for example, community groups, sports associations or service providers delivering community or extra-curricular activities), the school will ensure that appropriate safeguarding arrangements are in place to keep children safe.
56. When services or activities are provided by the governing body or proprietor, under the direct supervision or management of their school or college staff, the school's safeguarding and child protection arrangements will apply. However, where services or activities are provided separately by another body this is not necessarily the case.
57. The school will therefore seek assurance that the organisation has appropriate safeguarding and child protection policies and procedures in place (including inspecting these where appropriate), that safer recruitment procedures are followed where required, and that there are effective arrangements for liaison with the school on safeguarding matters.
58. The school will also ensure safeguarding requirements are included in any transfer of control agreement (i.e., lease or hire agreement), as a condition of use and occupation of the premises; and that failure to comply with this would lead to termination of the agreement (Keeping children safe in education, DFE, 2026).

Using ICT

59. In using ICT in lessons, the school will ensure:
 - Appropriate filtering and monitoring systems are in place to safeguard children from harmful and inappropriate online content, contact, conduct and commercial risks, whilst supporting teaching, learning and safeguarding.
 - Filtering and monitoring systems are regularly reviewed to ensure they remain effective, proportionate and appropriate to the school's safeguarding needs.
 - Appropriate cybersecurity measures, including anti-malware protection, secure network management and regular software updates, are in place to protect school systems and users.
 - Staff and pupils receive appropriate education and guidance on the safe, responsible and respectful use of technology, including social media, mobile devices and artificial intelligence (AI).
 - Appropriate monitoring and oversight of network and internet use is in place to support safeguarding and identify potential concerns.

- The use of ICT complies with the school's Online Safety Policy, Acceptable Use Agreements, Data Protection Policy and Information Security procedures.
60. All staff are expected to report immediately any safeguarding concerns arising from the use of technology, including the discovery of indecent or illegal images, evidence of online abuse or exploitation, cybercrime, or inappropriate online activity, to the Designated Safeguarding Lead. Where appropriate, incidents will also be reported to the Police, the Internet Watch Foundation (IWF) or other relevant agencies in accordance with statutory guidance.

Monitoring safeguarding arrangements

61. At the start of each academic year, senior leaders will review and evaluate the effectiveness of the school's safeguarding arrangements by completing the safeguarding self-assessment checklist (Appendix 4), ensuring compliance with statutory safeguarding guidance and local safeguarding partner requirements.
62. Following completion of the self-assessment, an action plan will be developed where improvements are identified. Progress against the action plan will be monitored regularly and reviewed by senior leaders and the governing body, where appropriate.
63. Safeguarding information, including safeguarding trends, training, attendance, behaviour, child protection activity, online safety and the effectiveness of safeguarding arrangements, will be reported to the Local Governing Body and the Board of Trustees at least termly to enable appropriate scrutiny, challenge and oversight.
64. The school will also participate in external safeguarding reviews, audits and quality assurance activities, including those undertaken by the Trust, Local Authority and safeguarding partners, where appropriate, to support continuous improvement in safeguarding practice.

Extended school, off-site arrangements, and alternative providers

65. This policy applies to all pupils participating in extended school activities, educational visits and off-site provision. Where extended school activities are provided and managed by Fulwood Academy, the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and procedures will apply.
66. Where services or activities are provided by external organisations on the school site, the school will seek assurance that they have appropriate safeguarding and child protection policies, procedures and safer recruitment practices in place, and that appropriate arrangements exist for liaison with the school on safeguarding matters.
67. When pupils attend off-site activities, educational visits, work experience, alternative provision or participate in managed moves, the school will ensure that effective safeguarding and child protection arrangements are in place and that appropriate risk assessments have been completed where required.
68. All organisations and providers will be appropriately vetted to ensure that pupils are safeguarded from inappropriate political, extremist or discriminatory views, harmful influence or activities that are not consistent with the school's values or statutory safeguarding responsibilities.

Where the school places a pupil in alternative provision, Fulwood Academy remains responsible for the safeguarding and promotion of that pupil's welfare and educational outcomes. The school will satisfy itself that the provider is suitable, meets the needs of the pupil, and has appropriate safeguarding arrangements in place. Fulwood Academy will obtain written confirmation from the provider that all appropriate safeguarding and safer recruitment checks have been completed on staff working with children, in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE, 2026). The school will maintain appropriate oversight of the placement, including monitoring attendance, safeguarding, welfare and educational progress.

69. The school will maintain regular communication with alternative provision providers and, where appropriate, undertake visits to assure itself that pupils are safe, attending regularly, receiving a suitable education and making appropriate progress.

Recognising abuse

70. Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse, neglect or exploit a child by inflicting harm or by failing to act to prevent harm. A child may be abused in a family, institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others. Abuse can take place wholly online, or technology may be used to facilitate offline abuse. Children may be abused by an adult or adults, or by another child or children.
71. Abuse can take many forms. Abuse, safeguarding issues and neglect are rarely standalone events that can be covered by one definition or label. Knowing what to look for is vital to the early identification of abuse, neglect and exploitation. If a member of staff is unsure whether a concern constitutes abuse, neglect or exploitation, they should always speak to the Designated Safeguarding Lead (or deputy). Staff should maintain an attitude of 'it could happen here' and exercise professional curiosity where they have concerns about a child.

Physical abuse

72. Physical abuse is any form of abuse which may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child. Possible signs of physical abuse include:
- Any injuries not consistent with the explanation given for them
 - Injuries which occur to the body in places which are not normally exposed to falls or rough games
 - Injuries which have not received medical attention
 - Reluctance to change for, or participate in, games or swimming
 - Bruises, bites, burns and fractures, for example, which do not have an accidental explanation
 - Inconsistent accounts for the cause of injuries

Emotional abuse

73. Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to a child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or 'making fun' of what they say or how they communicate. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond a child's developmental capability as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing, hearing or experiencing the effects of the ill-treatment of another, including domestic abuse. It may involve serious bullying (including cyberbullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, although it may occur alone. Possible signs of emotional abuse include:

- Depression, aggression, extreme anxiety, changes or regression in mood or behaviour, particularly where a child withdraws or becomes clingy
- Obsessions or phobias
- Sudden underachievement or lack of concentration
- Seeking adult attention and not mixing well with other children
- Sleep or speech disorders
- Negative statements about self
- Highly aggressive or cruel to others
- Extreme shyness or passivity
- Running away
- Stealing
- Lying

Sexual abuse

74. Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for abuse (including online). Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children. Possible signs of sexual abuse include:

- The child has an excessive preoccupation with sexual matters and inappropriate knowledge of adult sexual behaviour for their age, or regularly engages in sexual play inappropriate for their age
- Sexual activity through words, play or drawing
- Repeated urinary infections or unexplained stomach pains
- The child is sexually provocative or seductive with adults
- Inappropriate bed-sharing arrangements at home
- Severe sleep disturbances with fears, phobias, vivid dreams, or nightmares which sometimes have overt or veiled sexual connotations
- Eating disorders such as anorexia or bulimia
- Weight gain
- Deterioration in appearance and personal hygiene

Neglect

75. Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy, for example, as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to: provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment); protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger; ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate care-givers); or ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

76. The four categories of abuse rarely occur in isolation. Children may experience multiple forms of abuse, neglect and exploitation simultaneously, and safeguarding concerns may arise both within and beyond the home, including online. Staff should remain professionally curious and discuss any concerns with the Designated Safeguarding Lead without delay.

Recognising extremism and radicalisation

77. Section 26 of the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 places a duty on schools to have “due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism”. ‘Having due regard’ means that schools should place an appropriate amount of weight on the need to prevent people being drawn into terrorism when they consider all the other factors relevant to how they carry out their usual functions. Being drawn into terrorism includes not just violent extremism but also non-violent extremism, which can create an atmosphere conducive to terrorism and can popularise views which terrorists exploit.
78. The following guidance provides examples of potential indicators for assessing an individual’s susceptibility to being drawn in terrorism. The examples are not exhaustive and vulnerability may manifest itself in other ways; there is not simple profile. The guidance is written with regard to the Home Office guidance “Channel: Protecting vulnerable people from being drawn into terrorism” (2015) and “Channel: Vulnerability assessment framework” (2012).

Engagement:

79. Example needs, susceptibilities, motivations and contextual influences that make individuals susceptible and ‘at risk’ to engagement with an extremist group, cause or ideology include:
- Feelings of grievance and injustice
 - Feeling under threat
 - A need for identity, meaning and belonging
 - A desire for status
 - A desire for excitement and adventure
 - A need to dominate and control others
 - Susceptibility to indoctrination
 - A desire for political or moral change
 - Opportunistic involvement
 - Family or friends’ involvement in extremism
 - Being at a transitional time of life
 - Being influenced or controlled by a group
 - Relevant mental health issues
80. Example indicators that an individual is engaged with an extremist group, cause or ideology include:
- Spending increasing time in the company of other suspected extremists
 - Changing their style of dress or personal appearance to accord with the group
 - Their day-to-day behaviour becoming increasingly centred around an extremist ideology, group or cause
 - Loss of interest in other friends and activities not associated with the extremist ideology, group or cause
 - Possession of material or symbols associated with an extremist cause (e.g., the swastika for far right groups)
 - Attempts to recruit others to the group/cause/ideology
 - Communications with others that suggest identification with a group/cause/ideology

Intent to cause harm

81. Not all those who become engaged by a group, cause or ideology go on to develop an intention to cause harm, so this dimension is considered separately. Intent factors describe the mindset that is associated with a readiness to use violence and address what the individual would do and to what end. They can include:
- Over-identification with a group or ideology
 - ‘Them and us’ thinking
 - Dehumanisation of the enemy
 - Attitudes that justify offending
 - Harmful means to an end
 - Harmful objectives
82. Example indicators that an individual has an intention to use violence or other illegal means include:
- Clearly identifying another group as threatening by what they stand for and blaming that group for all social or political ills
 - Using insulting or derogatory names or labels for another group
 - Speaking about the imminence of harm from the other group and the importance of action now
 - Expressing attitudes that justify offending on behalf of the group, cause or ideology
 - Condoning or supporting violence or harm towards others
 - Plotting or conspiring with others

Capability to cause harm

83. Not all those who have a wish to cause harm on behalf of a group, cause or ideology are capable of doing so, and plots to cause widespread damage take a high level of personal capability, resources and networking to be successful. What the individual is capable of is therefore a key consideration when assessing risk of harm to the public. Example indicators that an individual is capable of directly or indirectly causing harm include:
- Having a history of violence
 - Being criminally versatile and using criminal networks to support extremist goals
 - Having occupational skills that can enable acts of terrorism (such as civil engineering, pharmacology, or construction)
 - Having technical expertise that can be deployed (e.g., IT skills, knowledge of chemicals, military training or survival skills)

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all pupils, including protecting them from the risks of radicalisation and extremism. In line with the government's Prevent Strategy, we have clear and robust procedures to ensure early identification, intervention, and support for students who may be vulnerable to radical influences.

Key Procedures for Safeguarding Pupils from Radicalisation

Staff Training and Awareness:

- All staff and governors receive statutory Prevent training to ensure they understand their duty to identify, report, and respond to risks of radicalisation.
- Staff and governors are aware of their legal responsibility to safeguard pupils from extremist influences, just as they would protect them from other forms of harm.

- Regular briefings and updates ensure that all members of the school community stay informed about Prevent policies and procedures.

Clear Reporting and Referral Process:

- Staff must report any concerns about radicalisation immediately to the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) or a deputy.
- The DSL will assess the concern, gather relevant information, and liaise with external agencies when necessary.
- If required, the DSL will make a Prevent referral to the local Prevent team. The team will assess the referral and decide whether it meets threshold for further action or a multi-agency Channel Panel for further intervention.

Filtering and Monitoring Online Activity:

- The school has internet filtering systems to prevent access to extremist and terrorist material.
- Online safety is promoted through PD lessons, assemblies, pupils safeguarding training and parental engagement initiatives.

Curriculum and Preventative Education:

- Subjects such as PSHE, Citizenship, and Religious Studies educate students about critical thinking, democracy, and tolerance.
- The school challenges prejudices and extremist narratives while promoting diversity, respect, and British values.
- Engagement with External Agencies:
- The school collaborates with local Prevent services, police, and safeguarding authorities to ensure effective intervention and support.
- Pupils participate in workshops and awareness programs run by external organisations.

Parental Engagement and Support:

- Parents are provided with resources and guidance on online safety, radicalisation risks, and ways to discuss these topics with their children.
- Concerns raised by parents or community members are taken seriously and acted upon accordingly.

Escalation Policy for Serious Concerns:

- If a student is deemed to be at immediate risk of harm due to radicalisation, the DSL will contact Lancashire Prevent Services, the police, or social care services without delay.
- A clear escalation process ensures that if there is a threat to public safety, the school will involve law enforcement at the appropriate time.

Guidance on specific types of abuse

Child sexual exploitation

84. Child sexual exploitation (CSE) is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology (DfE, 2017). It may involve an exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator and/or through violence or the threat of violence. CSE can affect children, both male and female and can include children who have been moved (commonly referred to as trafficking) for the purpose of exploitation.
85. Child sexual exploitation is never the victim's fault, even if there is some form of exchange: all children and young people under the age of 18 have a right to be safe and should be protected from harm.
86. Possible signs of child exploitation include:
- Acquisition of money, clothes, mobile phones etc without plausible explanation
 - Gang-association and/or isolation from peers/social networks
 - Exclusion or deliberately missing education
 - Leaving home/care without explanation and persistently going missing or returning late
 - Excessive receipt of texts/phone calls
 - Returning home under the influence of drugs/alcohol
 - Inappropriate sexualised behaviour for age/sexually transmitted infections
 - Evidence of/suspicions of physical or sexual assault
 - Relationships with controlling or significantly older individuals or groups
 - Multiple callers (unknown adults or peers)
 - Frequenting areas known for sex work
 - Concerning use of internet or other social media
 - Increasing secretiveness around behaviours
 - Self-harm or significant changes in emotional well-being
87. All responses will pay regard to the DfE advice 'Child sexual exploitation - Definition and a guide for practitioners, local leaders and decision makers working to protect children from child sexual exploitation'.

Female genital mutilation

88. Female genital mutilation (FGM) comprises all procedures involving partial or total removal of the external female genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs. It is illegal in the UK and a form of child abuse with long-lasting harmful consequences.
89. The school is alert to the possibility of a girl being at risk of FGM, or already having suffered FGM.
90. Signs FGM may be imminent include:
- The possibility that families will practise FGM in the UK when a female family elder is around, particularly when she is visiting from a country of origin
 - A professional may hear reference to FGM in conversation, for example a girl may tell other children about it

- A girl may confide that she is to have a 'special procedure' or to attend a special occasion to 'become a woman'
- A girl may request help from a teacher or another adult if she is aware or suspects that she is at immediate risk
 - Parents seeking to withdraw their children from learning about FGM

91. There are a number of indications that a girl or woman has already been subjected to FGM:

- A girl or woman may have difficulty walking, sitting, or standing and may even look uncomfortable
- A girl or woman may spend longer than normal in the bathroom or toilet due to difficulties urinating
 - A girl may spend long periods of time away from a classroom during the day with bladder or menstrual problems
- A girl or woman may have frequent urinary, menstrual or stomach problems
- There may be prolonged or repeated absences from school or college
- A prolonged absence from school or college with noticeable behaviour changes (e.g., withdrawal or depression) on the girl's return
- A girl or woman may be particularly reluctant to undergo normal medical examinations
- A girl or woman may confide in a professional
- A girl or woman may ask for help, but may not be explicit about the problem due to embarrassment or fear
- A girl may talk about pain or discomfort between her legs

92. Where staff have a concern, the school will activate local safeguarding procedures, using existing national and local protocols for multi-agency liaison with Police and children's social care.

93. In line with Section 5B of the Female Genital Mutilation Act 2003 (as inserted by section 74 of the Serious Crime Act 2015), the school and its staff will fulfil the statutory duty to report to the Police where they discover (either through disclosure by the victim or visual evidence), that FGM appears to have been carried out on a girl under 18.

Forced marriage

94. Forcing a person into a marriage or any conduct where the purpose is to cause a child to marry before their 18th birthday is a crime in England and Wales. A forced marriage is one entered into without the full and free consent of one or both parties and where violence, threats or any other form of coercion is used or not used to cause a person to enter into a marriage. Threats can be physical or emotional and psychological. A lack of full and free consent can be where a person does not consent or where they cannot consent (if they have learning disabilities, for example). Nevertheless, some communities use religion and culture as a way to coerce a person into marriage.

95. All school staff need to be aware when reporting forced marriage that it is dealt with promptly. If the perpetrator becomes aware that the forced marriage is being investigated this can place the child at risk of being sent abroad immediately, disappearing and even murdered. Upon discovering and reporting a forced marriage, school staff should not liaise with the child's family, unless this has been agreed following the risk assessment from police/children's social care. When reporting, the school staff must report any siblings they are aware of within the household too, this includes males as siblings may also be at potential risk.

96. Possible indicators that a pupil may be at risk of forced marriage include:

- A child may appear anxious, depressed and emotionally withdrawn with low self-esteem
- A child may have mental health disorders and display behaviours such as self-harming, self-cutting, or anorexia

- Sometimes a child may come to the attention of the police having been discovered shoplifting or taking drugs or alcohol
- A child may present with a sudden decline in their performance, behaviour, engagement, aspirations, or motivation
- A child may discuss an upcoming family holiday that they are worried about
- The child may have fears that they will be taken out of education and kept abroad
- A decline in punctuality which may be the result of having to 'negotiate' their way out of the house
- A child may be withdrawn from school by those with parental responsibility, and not provided with suitable education at home
- A child running away from home
- No time allowed for extra-curricular activities
- Surveillance of the child by siblings or cousins
- Family history of older siblings leaving education early and marrying early
- The child or other siblings within the family reported as missing
- Reports of Domestic Abuse, harassment, or breaches of the peace at the family home
- Reports by the child of rape or kidnap
 - Reports by the child of threats to kill and attempts to kill or harm by the perpetrator

Child on child abuse

97. Children may be harmed by other children or children and young people. Staff will be aware of the harm caused by bullying and will use the anti-bullying procedures where necessary. However, there will be occasions when a pupil's behaviour warrants a response under child protection rather than anti-bullying procedures.
98. Child on child abuse can include: bullying, sexual bullying at school; being coerced to send sexual images; physical and sexual assaults and violence; child sexual exploitation and teenage relationship abuse. Gang-affected young women are particularly vulnerable to being sexually exploited for protection, status, drugs, or money.
99. Fulwood takes child on child abuse seriously and all staff are clear that child on child abuse should not be passed off as 'part of growing up' or 'banter'.
100. The school has put in place safeguards to reduce the likelihood of child on child allegations as outlined in this document and is alert to the indicators of abuse.
101. Incidents of child on child abuse will be dealt in line with the normal school safeguarding procedures.
102. In dealing with child on child abuse, the school recognises:
 - That child on child abuse often occurs in the same school or neighbourhood, thus it is important any response takes account of how a network of peer relationships is affected
 - The relationship between sexual exploitation, serious youth violence, and teenage relationship abuse, and the need to ensure it is recognised when children and young people are experiencing multiple forms of abuse
 - That children and young people who have experienced abuse and exploitation can also be groomed to abuse their peers, requiring a much more holistic approach to safeguarding
 - That different gender issues can be prevalent
 - That child on child abuse can be influenced by the nature of the environments in which children and young people spend their time (e.g. exposure to violence on the streets, exposure to harmful social norms related to gender, relationships and consent)

- That child on child abuse hinges upon children and young people's experiences of power, and ultimately the notion of consent (while children and young people who abuse their peers have power over the young person they are harming, they may be simultaneously powerless in relation to some peers who are encouraging their behaviour or in the home where they are being abused)

103. The school also recognises that an alleged perpetrator is likely to have considerable unmet needs as well as posing a significant risk of harm to other children. Any decision on action in respect of the alleged perpetrator must be based on the risk they pose to other children and what can be done to minimise this risk. Assessment of an alleged perpetrator's needs will include consideration of:

- the nature, extent and context of the abusive behaviours
- the young person's development and family and social circumstances
- whether the young person appears to pose a continuing risk and, if so
- Who is likely to be at risk from him/her, and the nature and degree of the risk
- The young person's need for services, both those which relate to his/her harmful behaviour and other significant needs
- Whether the young person is also at risk of significant harm and should be the subject of a child protection conference
- Whether action is to be taken within the criminal justice system

Child on child abuse: sharing nudes and semi nudes

104. The UK Council for Child Internet Safety in partnership with the NSPCC define the term 'sharing nudes and semi-nudes' to mean the sending or posting of nude or semi-nude images, videos, or live streams by children and young people under the age of 18 online. This could be via social media, gaming platforms, chat apps or forums. It could also involve sharing between devices via services like Apple's AirDrop which works offline.

105. The term 'nudes' is used as it is most commonly recognised by children and young people and more appropriately covers all types of image-sharing incidents.

106. The motivations for taking and sharing nude and semi-nude images, videos and live streams are not always sexually or criminally motivated. Such images may be created and shared consensually by children and young people who are in relationships, as well as between those who are not in a relationship. It is also possible for a young person in a consensual relationship to be coerced into sharing an image with their partner. Incidents may also occur where:

- Children and young people find nudes and semi-nudes online and share them claiming to be from a peer
- Children and young people digitally manipulate an image of a young person into an existing nude online
- Images created or shared are used to abuse peers e.g., by selling images online or obtaining images to share more widely without consent to publicly shame

107. The sharing of nudes and semi-nudes can happen publicly online, in 1:1 messaging or via group chats and closed social media accounts.

108. Nude or semi-nude images, videos or live streams may include more than one child or young person.

109. Creating and sharing nudes and semi-nudes of under-18s (including those created and shared with consent) is illegal which makes responding to incidents involving children and young people complex.

110. What to do if an incident comes to a staff members attention:

- Report it to the designated safeguarding lead (DSL)
- Never view, copy, print, share, store or save the imagery yourself, or ask a child to share or download – this is illegal

- If the staff member has already viewed the imagery by accident (e.g., if a young person has showed it to them before they could ask them not to), report this to the DSL (or equivalent) and seek support
 - Do not delete the imagery or ask the young person to delete it
 - Do not ask the child/children or young person(s) who are involved in the incident to disclose information regarding the imagery. This is the responsibility of the DSL (or equivalent)
 - Do not share information about the incident with other members of staff, the young person(s) it involves or their, or other, parents and/or carers
 - Do not say or do anything to blame or shame any children and young people involved
 - Do explain to them that it will need to be reported and reassure them that they will receive support and help from the DSL (or equivalent)
111. The school will refer to the guidance 'Sharing nudes and semi-nudes: advice for education settings working with children and young people' when dealing with such incidents.
112. Any disclosures will be dealt with in line with procedures set out in this policy and subsequent referrals will be made in a timely manner.
113. In line with the school's general safeguarding procedures, all decisions, and actions, including dates and times and reasoning will be logged.

Child on child abuse: sexual violence and sexual harassment between children in schools and colleges

114. Sexual violence and sexual harassment can occur between two children of any age and sex. It can also occur through a group of children sexually assaulting or sexually harassing a single child or group of children. Children who are victims of sexual violence and sexual harassment will likely find the experience stressful and distressing. This will, in all likelihood, adversely affect their educational attainment.
115. Sexual violence and sexual harassment exist on a continuum and may overlap, they can occur online and offline (both physically and verbally) and are never acceptable. It is important that all victims are taken seriously and offered appropriate support. Reports of sexual violence and sexual harassment are extremely complex to manage. It is essential that victims are protected, offered appropriate support and every effort is made to ensure their education is not disrupted. It is also important that other children, pupils, and school staff are supported and protected as appropriate.
116. Staff should be aware of the importance of:
- Making clear that sexual violence and sexual harassment is not acceptable, will never be tolerated and is not an inevitable part of growing up
 - Not tolerating or dismissing sexual violence or sexual harassment as 'banter', 'part of growing up', 'just having a laugh' or 'boys being boys'
 - Challenging behaviours (potentially criminal in nature), such as grabbing bottoms, breasts, and genitalia, flicking bras, and lifting up skirts. Dismissing or tolerating such behaviours has the potential to normalise them
117. It is important to understand that all of the above can be driven by wider societal factors beyond the school, such as everyday sexist stereotypes and everyday sexist language.
118. It is essential that all victims are reassured that they are being taken seriously and that they will be supported and kept safe. A victim should never be given the impression that they are creating a problem by reporting sexual violence or sexual harassment. Nor should a victim ever be made to feel ashamed for making a report. In some cases, the victim may not make a direct report. For example, a friend may make a report, or a member of school staff may overhear a conversation that suggests a child has been harmed.

119. As with all safeguarding concerns, it is important that in such instances staff take appropriate action in accordance with the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy. Staff should not assume that someone else is responding to any incident or concern. If in any doubt, staff should speak to the Designated Safeguarding Lead (or a deputy). In such cases, the basic safeguarding principles remain the same, but it is important for the school to understand why the victim has chosen not to make a report themselves. This discussion should be handled sensitively and with the support of children's social care if required.
120. There may be reports where the alleged sexual violence or sexual harassment involves pupils from the same school but is alleged to have taken place away from the school premises, or online. There may also be reports where the children concerned attend two or more different schools. The safeguarding principles, and individual school's duties to safeguard and promote the welfare of pupils, remain the same. In such circumstances, appropriate information sharing and effective multi-agency working will be especially important (Sexual violence and sexual harassment between children in schools and colleges, DfE, 2021).

Faith abuse

121. Faith abuse is the belief in concepts of witchcraft and spirit possession, demons or the devil acting through children.
122. In working to identify such child abuse it is important to remember every child is different. Some children may display a combination of indicators of abuse whilst others will attempt to conceal them. There are a range of common features across identified cases. These indicators of abuse, which may also be common features in other kinds of abuse, include:
 - A child's body showing signs or marks, such as bruises or burns, from physical abuse
 - A child becoming noticeably confused, withdrawn, disorientated or isolated and appearing alone amongst other children
 - A child's personal care deteriorating, for example through a loss of weight, being hungry, turning up to school without food or lunch money, or being unkempt with dirty clothes and even faeces smeared on to them
 - Evidence that the child's parent or carer does not show concern for or have a close bond with the child
 - A child's attendance at school becoming irregular or the child being taken out of school altogether without another school place having been organised, or a deterioration in a child's performance at school
 - A child reporting that they are or have been accused of being 'evil' and/or that they are having the 'devil beaten out of them'
123. All staff should be alert to the indicators above and should be able to identify children at risk of this type of abuse and intervene to prevent it.

Fabricated illness

124. Fabricated or induced illness (FII) is a form of child abuse. It occurs when a parent or carer, exaggerates or deliberately causes symptoms of illness in the child. FII is also known as "Munchausen's syndrome by proxy" (not to be confused with Munchausen's syndrome, where a person pretends to be ill or causes illness or injury to themselves).
125. FII covers a wide range of symptoms and behaviours involving parents seeking healthcare for a child. This ranges from extreme neglect (failing to seek medical care) to induced illness. Behaviours in FII include a parent or carer who:
 - Persuades healthcare professionals that their child is ill when they are perfectly healthy
 - Exaggerates or lies about their child's symptoms

- Manipulates test results to suggest the presence of illness – for example, by putting glucose in urine samples to suggest the child has diabetes
- Deliberately induces symptoms of illness – for example, by poisoning her/his child with unnecessary medication or other substances

Child criminal exploitation: serious violence/county lines

126. Criminal exploitation of children is a geographically widespread form of harm that is a typical feature of serious violence and county lines criminal activity: drug networks or gangs groom and exploit children and young people to carry drugs and money from urban areas to suburban and rural areas, market and seaside towns. It may involve an exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator and/or through violence or the threat of violence. CCE can affect children, both male and female and can include children who have been moved (commonly referred to as trafficking) for the purpose of exploitation.
127. Key to identifying potential involvement in serious violence/county lines are missing episodes in education, a change in friendships or relationships with older individuals or groups, significant decline in performance, signs of self-harm or significant change in wellbeing, signs of assault or unexplained injuries, drug or alcohol misuse, missing for periods of time or regularly home late. Unexplained gifts or new possessions are also indicators of children being involved with individuals associated with criminal networks or gangs.
128. When the victim may have been trafficked for the purpose of transporting drugs, like other forms of abuse and exploitation, county lines exploitation can affect:
- Any child or young person (male or female) under the age of 18 years, even if the activity appears consensual. The perpetrators may well be part of a group, either single or mixed sex
 - Any vulnerable adult over the age of 18 years
129. Child exploitation is typified by some form of power imbalance in favour of those perpetrating the exploitation. Whilst age may be the most obvious, this power imbalance can also be due to a range of other factors including gender, cognitive ability, physical strength, status, and access to economic or other resources (Keeping children safe in education, DfE 2026).

So-called ‘honour-based’ violence

130. So-called ‘honour-based’ violence (HBV) encompasses incidents or crimes which have been committed to protect or defend the honour of the family and/or the community, including female genital mutilation (FGM), forced marriage, and practices such as breast ironing. Abuse committed in the context of preserving ‘honour’ often involves a wider network of family or community pressure and can include multiple perpetrators.
131. It is important to be aware of this dynamic and additional risk factors when deciding what form of safeguarding action to take. All forms of HBV are abuse (regardless of the motivation) and should be handled and escalated as such. Professionals in all agencies, and individuals and groups in relevant communities, need to be alert to the possibility of a child being at risk of HBV, or already having suffered HBV.
132. If staff have a concern regarding a child that might be at risk of HBV, they should activate local safeguarding procedures, using existing national and local protocols for multiagency liaison with police and children’s social care (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026).

Homelessness

133. Being homeless or being at risk of homeless presents a real risk to a child's welfare. Indicators that a family may be a risk of becoming homeless include household debt, rent arrears and domestic abuse, along with the child being withdrawn and maybe showing signs of physical neglect.

Upskirting

134. Under the Voyeurism (Offences) Act 2019, it is an offence to operate equipment and to record an image beneath a person's clothing without consent and with the intention of observing, or enabling another person to observe, the victim's genitals or buttocks (whether exposed or covered with underwear), in circumstances where their genitals, buttocks or underwear would not otherwise be visible, for a specified purpose.
135. A 'specified purpose' is namely:
- Obtaining sexual gratification (either for themselves or for the person they are enabling to view the victim's genitals, buttocks or underwear)
 - To humiliate, distress or alarm the victim
136. 'Operating equipment' includes enabling, or securing, activation by another person without that person's knowledge, e.g., a motion activated camera.
137. Upskirting will not be tolerated by Fulwood Academy.
138. Any incidents of upskirting will be reported to the designated safeguarding lead who will then decide on the next steps to take, which may include police involvement.

Online risks

139. The use of technology has become a significant component of many safeguarding issues. Child sexual exploitation; radicalisation; sexual predation: technology often provides the platform that facilitates harm. An effective approach to online safety empowers a school to protect and educate the whole school or community in their use of technology and establishes mechanisms to identify, intervene in and escalate any incident where appropriate.
140. Online safety is a key part of safeguarding in our school. The risks children and young people may face online are wide-ranging and constantly changing. To help us manage these risks, we group them into four main categories:
- 141. Content – Children may be exposed to harmful or upsetting material. This could include things like pornography, racist or sexist content, material encouraging self-harm or suicide, anti-Semitism, extremist views, radicalisation, conspiracy theories, or deliberately misleading information (sometimes called "fake news").
 - 142. Contact – Children may be targeted online by others who seek to harm or exploit them. This includes peer pressure, manipulative advertising, or adults pretending to be children in order to groom or exploit children and young people for sexual, criminal, or financial reasons.
 - 143. Conduct – Children may engage in risky or harmful behaviour online. This includes sending or receiving explicit images (sometimes called "nudes"), accessing or sharing pornography, or being involved in online bullying.
 - 144. Commerce – Children may be at risk from online scams, gambling sites, inappropriate advertising, phishing attempts, or other financial exploitation.
145. The school will carry out an annual online safety review to ensure the curriculum and supportive interventions reflect the risks associated with the presentation online of the pupil's face this will be inline with the DfE Digital and Technology Standards.

146. It is the responsibility of all staff, trustees and governors to understand their expectations, role and responsibilities in the monitoring and filtering systems within school and all stakeholders will receive training in this area as part of their safeguarding training.
147. The school has a proactive approach to filtering and monitoring, all pupils receive termly training in this area and the devices and network is monitored by SOPHOS firewall and filtering. This system blocks access to any website deemed inappropriate for education environments such as pornographic, extremism, gambling material. It will block the website to pupils and issue an onscreen warning, this is then reported back to the ICT Manager, who logs the violation on the Filtering and Monitoring Tracker. The Head of Year or DSL will investigate and action accordingly. Online safety also forms part of our PSHE curriculum. Regular newsletters and information letters are also sent to parents/carers providing advice and guidance on how to keep their child safe online at home. Pupils will sign our ICT agreement and home school agreement.
148. The DSL has overall responsibility for the filtering and monitoring systems and processes in school.

Information Security and Access Management

149. Education settings are directly responsible for ensuring they have the appropriate level of security protection procedures in place in order to safeguard their systems, staff and learners and review the effectiveness of these procedures periodically to keep up with evolving cyber-crime technologies.
150. All staff undergo Cyber Security Training by the National Cyber Security Centre.

What is online abuse?

151. Online abuse is any type of abuse that happens on the internet. It can happen across any device that's connected to the web, like computers, tablets, and mobile phones. And it can happen anywhere online, including:
 - Social media
 - Text messages and messaging apps
 - Emails
 - Online chats
 - Online gaming
 - Live-streaming sites
152. Children can be at risk of online abuse from people they know or from strangers. It might be part of other abuse which is taking place offline, like bullying or grooming. Or the abuse might only happen online.

Signs of online abuse

153. A child or young person experiencing abuse online might:
 - Spend a lot more or a lot less time than usual online, texting, gaming, or using social media
 - Seem distant, upset, or angry after using the internet or texting
 - Be secretive about who they're talking to and what they're doing online or on their mobile phone
 - Have lots of new phone numbers, texts or email addresses on their mobile phone, laptop, or tablet
154. Some of the signs of online abuse are similar to other abuse types:
 - Cyberbullying
 - Grooming
 - Sexual abuse

- Child sexual exploitation

Filtering and monitoring

155. In line with statutory guidance from Keeping Children Safe in Education (2026), our school is committed to providing a safe digital environment and limiting children's exposure to risks from the school's IT systems.
156. To support this, the school has appropriate filtering and monitoring systems in place. These are:
 157. Regularly reviewed for effectiveness,
 158. Managed by assigned staff with clear roles and responsibilities, and
 159. Proportionate to the safeguarding risks posed to our pupil cohort, including considerations of age, usage patterns, and vulnerability.
160. The leadership team and relevant staff are aware of, understand, and are trained to manage the filtering and monitoring provisions. They also know how to escalate any concerns arising from these systems.
161. The effectiveness of filtering and monitoring is reviewed at least annually, and more frequently where risks indicate a need. Additionally, we make use of the Department for Education's "Plan technology for your school" service to self-assess our provision against national filtering and monitoring standards and to guide improvements.
162. In line with these standards, our school ensures that filtering and monitoring systems:
 163. Block harmful and inappropriate content without unreasonably disrupting teaching and learning.
 164. Are part of a wider digital safety strategy that includes clear policies, training, and safeguarding oversight.
 165. Have effective monitoring strategies tailored to our safeguarding needs.
166. To ensure ongoing effectiveness and operational alignment with safeguarding practices, the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) and the IT Network Manager meet on a half-termly basis to:
 167. Review filtering and monitoring logs and alerts,
 168. Discuss patterns of online behaviour and emerging risks,
 169. Evaluate system performance and user compliance, and
 170. Plan any necessary updates or staff/student interventions.
171. This structured and collaborative approach helps ensure that technology supports, rather than undermines, our safeguarding responsibilities.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

172. The school acknowledges the potential benefits of AI in education, including:
 173. Enhancing teaching and learning.
 174. Improving learning outcomes.
 175. Supporting administrative processes and reducing staff workload.
 176. Preparing learners for a future where AI will be an integral part of society and the workforce.

177. Staff are encouraged to use AI-based tools to support their work where appropriate, within the frameworks provided below. Staff must act professionally and be accountable for their use of AI.
178. AI and Compliance with Safeguarding & Data Protection
179. The school will comply with all relevant legislation and guidance, including Keeping Children Safe in Education and UK GDPR.
180. Training will be provided for staff and governors on the advantages, use, and risks of AI.
181. The school will support staff in identifying training and development needs to enable relevant opportunities.
182. The curriculum will integrate learning about AI, ensuring that students understand:
 183. How AI works.
 184. Its potential benefits, risks, and ethical implications.
 185. Social and economic impacts of AI.
186. Responsible AI Use for Staff
187. Staff, Parents and Pupils will be supported in using AI tools responsibly, ensuring the protection of personal and sensitive data.
188. Only anonymised data may be inputted into AI tools to avoid exposure of personally identifiable information.
189. AI tools must comply with UK GDPR and data protection regulations.
190. Staff must only use school-provided AI accounts for work purposes to ensure compliance with security and oversight requirements.
191. Sensitive data must not be inputted into third-party AI tools unless they have been vetted and approved for this purpose.
192. Ethical Use of AI & Transparency
 193. AI tools must not infringe copyright or intellectual property. Care must be taken to ensure that learner-created content is not used to train AI models without consent.
 194. AI-generated content in documents, emails, presentations, or teaching materials must be clearly labelled to maintain transparency and trust.
 195. Staff must verify AI-generated content for accuracy before sharing or publishing to prevent the spread of misinformation.
 196. AI should assist, not replace, human decision-making. Final judgments must always be made by a person.
197. AI Risk Assessment & Incident Management
 198. Any AI-related incidents, data breaches, or misuse must be reported immediately to the school's safeguarding or IT team.
 199. The school will audit all AI systems in use, assessing their impact on staff, learners, and school procedures.
 200. AI tools will be monitored for potential discrimination or bias in outputs, with interventions in place to mitigate risks.
 201. Improper use of AI (including breaches of data protection) may result in disciplinary action in line with the school's Staff Disciplinary Policy.
202. AI and Parental Engagement

203. The school will support parents and carers in understanding the use of AI in education through an "AI in Our School Guide".
204. Parents will be informed of how AI is used in school settings and any implications for their child's learning and safety.
205. A version of this guide is available for pupils.
206. Responding to AI generated Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM)
207. What school will do:
 - Treat AI-generated CSAM the same as traditional CSAM
 - Don't delete – preserve devices and evidence
 - Inform the DSL immediately – escalate via safeguarding pathways
 - Report to police (call 101 or 999 if immediate danger) as the primary pathway, with additional reports to CEOP or IWF as appropriate
 - Use Childline's Report Remove for pupil-led takedowns
 - Update policies and training to include AI-related harms
 - Educate pupils on legal risks of creating or sharing AI-generated content

Child abduction and community safety incidents

208. Child abduction is the unauthorised removal or retention of a minor from a parent or anyone with legal responsibility for the child. Child abduction can be committed by parents or other family members; by people known but not related to the victim (such as neighbours, friends and acquaintances); and by strangers.
209. Other community safety incidents in the vicinity of a school can raise concerns amongst children and parents, for example, people loitering nearby or unknown adults engaging children in conversation.
210. As children get older and are granted more independence (for example, as they start walking to school on their own) it is important they are given practical advice on how to keep themselves safe. As part of the PSHE curriculum, lessons are provided on outdoor safety.
211. Lessons focus on building children's confidence and abilities rather than simply warning them about all strangers.

Self-harm

212. Self-harm is when someone deliberately hurts or injures themselves. It is a continuum ranging from a behaviour which has strong suicidal intent to behaviour which is part of a coping mechanism. It can be used to describe behaviours such as cutting, scratching, burning, taking overdoses, punching oneself, substance abuse, self-poisoning, unsafe sex etc.
213. Common problems preceding self-harm are:
 - Difficulties with parents/boy or girlfriends/siblings/friends
 - School problems/bullying
 - Mental health issues e.g., depression, eating disorders
 - Low self esteem
 - Sexual problems
 - Physical ill health
 - Alcohol/drug abuse
 - Physical/sexual abuse

214. Possible reasons/motives underlying self-harm are:

- To die
- To escape from unbearable distress
- To change the behaviour of others
- To show desperation to others
- To get back at other people or make them feel guilty
- To relieve tension
- To seek help

215. All staff are expected to:

- Listen to pupils who are experiencing emotional distress in a calm and non-judgemental way
- Report the self-harm incident to the DSL as soon as possible.
 - Not make promises e.g., assuring confidentiality which cannot be kept. Reassure the pupil that in order to receive help and find more helpful ways to cope with problems others may need to know.
- Guide the pupil towards wanting to make positive changes
- Promote problem-solving techniques and non-harmful ways to deal with emotional distress
 - Provide accurate information about self-harming and awareness about associated mental health problems
- Be aware of health and safety issues such as first aid if the incident has occurred in school
 - Seek medical advice or urgent medical assistance where required (e.g., in the event of an overdose)

216. The designated safeguarding lead will:

- Keep accurate records of incidents of self-harm and concerns
- Follow up any medical emergencies or referrals
- Liaise with local services about help available for children and young people who self-harm
 - Keep up-to-date information about self-harm, e.g., info leaflets from YoungMinds
- Liaise with the wider safeguarding and pastoral team
 - Contact the parents at the appropriate time. Involve the pupil in this process. Inform the parent about the appropriate help and support that is available for their child. Monitor the pupil's progress, e.g., school work, general presentation, following the incident
- Know when to seek help to deal with their own feelings and distress

217. Pupils will be expected to:

- Talk to the appropriate staff member if they are in emotional distress
- Alert a teacher if they suspect a fellow pupil of being suicidal or at serious risk of harm to themselves, and know when confidentiality must be broken

218. Parents will be encouraged to:

- Endorse the schools' approach to dealing with self-harm and education/awareness raising
- Work in partnership with the school
- Keep the school informed when a child has external agency support

Mental Health

219. Where children have suffered abuse, neglect and exploitation, or other potentially traumatic adverse childhood experiences, this can have a lasting impact throughout childhood, adolescence and into adulthood. It is key that staff are aware of how these children's experiences, can impact on their mental health, behaviour, attendance and progress at school.

220. The mental health policy will provide more information on supporting pupils.

Further information of specific safeguarding issues

221. Expert and professional organisations are best placed to provide up-to-date guidance and practical support on specific safeguarding issues. Recognising children who may be particularly vulnerable

222. Some children may have an increased risk of abuse. Many factors can contribute to an increase in risk, including prejudice and discrimination, isolation, social exclusion, communication issues and reluctance on the part of some adults to accept that abuse can occur.

Children who are looked after

223. The most common reason for children becoming looked after is as a result of abuse and/or neglect. The school will ensure that staff have the skills, knowledge and understanding to keep looked after children safe.
224. In particular, the school will ensure that appropriate staff have the information they need in relation to a child's looked after legal status (whether they are looked after under voluntary arrangements with consent of parents or on an interim or full care order) and contact arrangements with birth parents or those with parental responsibility. The school also collates information about the child's care arrangements and the levels of authority delegated to the carer by the authority looking after him/her.

The designated safeguarding lead should have details of the child's social worker and the name of the virtual school head in the authority that looks after the child.

225. A previously looked after child potentially remains vulnerable and all staff should have the skills, knowledge and understanding to keep previously looked after children safe. When dealing with looked after children and previously looked after children, it is important that all agencies work together and prompt action is taken on concerns to safeguard these children, who are a particularly vulnerable group.
226. The school will appoint a designated teacher who will work with local authorities to promote the educational achievement of registered pupils who are looked after (the designated safeguarding lead). Under sections 4 to 6 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017, designated teachers also have responsibility for promoting the educational achievement of children who have left care through adoption, special guardianship or child arrangement orders or who were adopted from state care outside England and Wales. The designated teacher must have appropriate training and the relevant qualifications and experience (Keeping children safe in education, DfE 2026).

Children with special educational needs and disabilities

227. Children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) can face additional safeguarding challenges. These can include:
 - Assumptions that indicators of possible abuse such as behaviour, mood and injury relate to the child's disability without further exploration
 - Being more prone to peer group isolation than other children
 - The potential for children with SEND being disproportionately impacted by behaviours such as bullying, without outwardly showing any signs
 - Communication barriers and difficulties in overcoming these barriers
228. To address these additional challenges, the school will consider extra pastoral support for children with SEND.
229. When applying disciplinary measures such as restraint or isolation in response to incidents involving children with SEND, the school will consider the risks carefully, given the additional vulnerability of the group. However, to safeguard a pupil and others, it may be necessary to use restraint.
230. By planning positive and proactive behaviour support, the school can reduce the occurrence of risky behaviour and the need to use restraint (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026).

Other considerations

231. In addition to the above, to ensure that all our pupils receive appropriate protection, the school will give special consideration to children who are:
 - Living in a domestically abusive situation
 - Affected by parental substance misuse
 - Asylum seekers and refugees
 - Regularly absent from school
 - Attending alternative provision or subject to a managed move
 - Living away from home (frequent movers)
 - Vulnerable to being bullied, or engaging in bullying
 - Living in temporary accommodation; for example, living in hotel/hostel accommodation
 - Living a transient lifestyle
 - Living in chaotic and unsupportive home situations
 - Vulnerable to discrimination and maltreatment on the grounds of race, ethnicity, religion or sexuality

- Children who are lesbian, gay, bisexual or gender questioning (LGBT) can be targeted by their peers. In some cases, a child who is perceived by their peers to be LGBT (whether they are or not) can be just as vulnerable as children who identify as LGBT
- Involved directly or indirectly in prostitution or child trafficking
- Speakers of another first language
- Subject to a child protection plan
- Subject to a child in need plan
- Vulnerable to messages of violence and extreme ideologies
- Young carers
- Receiving support for their mental health
- Part of a family living with financial hardship

Children missing from education

232. A child missing from education should not be confused with a child absent from education
233. A child absent from education, means the school knows where the child is, but the child is not attending school. A child absent from education for a prolonged period of time and/or on repeat can act as a warning to a range of safeguarding issues.
234. A child going missing from education is a potential indicator of abuse or neglect.
235. The school will ensure its procedures for dealing with children who go missing from education and children absent from education, particularly on repeat occasions, are rigorously implemented to help identify the risk of abuse, neglect and exploitation and to help prevent the risks of their going missing in the future. The attendance policy procedures, following guidance from Working Together to Improve Attendance will be implemented.
236. The school will inform the local authority of any pupils who are failing to attend school regularly or going to be deleted from the admission register under all fifteen grounds for deletion. This will be done as soon as the grounds for deletion are met, but no later than deleting the pupil's name from the register. The school will record details of the pupil's residence, the name of the person with whom they will reside, the date from which they will reside there, and the destination school (where this can reasonably be obtained). The school will inform the local authority of the pupil's destination school and home address.
237. The school will inform the local authority of any pupil who fails to attend school, at such intervals as are agreed between the school and the local authority (or in default of such agreement, at intervals determined by the Secretary of State).
238. The school will work collaboratively with the local authority to make reasonable enquiries about a pupil's whereabouts where there is a continuous absence after a grant of leave.
239. The school will inform the local authority when registering new pupils within five days, including the pupil's address and previous school (where this can reasonably be obtained).
240. The school will cooperate with the local authority on the provision of the above information for pupils leaving or joining the school at standard transition points.

Elective Home Education

241. Many home educated children have a positive learning experience. We would expect the parents' decision to home educate to be made with their child's best education at the heart of the decision.

However, this is not the case for all, and home education can mean some children are less visible to the services that are there to keep them safe and supported in line with their needs and so not in receipt of suitable education.

242. From September 2016 the Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006 were amended so that schools must inform their LA of all deletions from their admission register when a child is taken off roll.
243. Where a parent/carers has expressed their intention to remove a child from school with a view to educating at home, we will work together to coordinate a meeting with parents/carers where possible. Ideally, this would be before a final decision has been made, to ensure the parents/carers have considered what is in the best interests of each child. This is particularly important where a child has special educational needs or a disability, and/or has a social worker, and/or is otherwise vulnerable. Where a child has an Education, Health and Care plan local authorities will need to review the plan, working closely with parents and carers.

Dealing with safeguarding concerns and incidents

Responding to a disclosure

244. If a child reports that they are being abused and/or neglected, staff should listen to them, take their allegation seriously, and reassure them that action will be taken to keep them safe.
245. It takes a lot of courage for a child to disclose that they are being abused. They may feel ashamed, particularly if the abuse is sexual; their abuser may have threatened what will happen if they tell; they may have lost all trust in adults; or they may believe, or have been told, that the abuse is their own fault.
246. If a pupil talks to a member of staff about any risks to their safety or wellbeing (including that of mental health or self-harm), the staff member will need to let the pupil know that they must pass the information on – staff are not allowed to keep secrets. The point at which they tell the pupil this, is a matter of professional judgement. If they jump in immediately, the pupil may think that they do not want to listen. If left until the very end of the conversation, the pupil may feel that they have been misled into revealing more than they would have otherwise.
247. During their conversations with the pupils, staff will:
 - Allow them to speak freely; listening carefully and uncritically
 - Endeavour to utilise a neutral translator if necessary
 - Remain calm and collected – the pupil may stop talking if they feel they are upsetting their listener
 - Give reassuring nods or words of comfort and reassure the pupil that they are right to tell – ‘I’m sorry this has happened’, ‘I want to help’, ‘This isn’t your fault’, ‘You are doing the right thing in talking to me’
 - Not be afraid of silences – staff must remember how hard this must be for the pupil
 - Consider their own body language and the messages it may send a child regarding the nature of the disclosure
 - Under no circumstances ask investigative questions – such as how many times this has happened, whether it happens to siblings too, or what does the pupil’s mother think
 - Tell the pupil that in order to help them, the member of staff must pass the information on
 - Not automatically offer any physical touch as comfort – it may be anything but comfort to a child who has been abused

- Avoid admonishing the child for not disclosing earlier. Saying things such as ‘I do wish you had told me about this when it started’ or ‘I can’t believe what I’m hearing’ may be interpreted by the child to mean that they have done something wrong
- Tell the pupil what will happen next – the pupil may agree to go to see the designated safeguarding lead otherwise it is the duty of the member of staff to inform the designated safeguarding lead of what has been discussed (if the pupil does agree to go and see the designated safeguarding lead, the staff member should inform the designated safeguarding lead that the child will be coming to see them at some point)

248. Following the conversation, the staff will report the disclosure as outlined in the Reporting safeguarding concerns section taking precaution to report to the designated safeguarding lead even if the child has promised to do it by themselves and following up with a written record. Staff should seek support if they feel distressed.

Responding to a concern that a child is at risk

249. There will be occasions when, in the absence of a disclosure, staff may suspect that a pupil may be at risk but have no ‘real’ evidence. The pupil’s behaviour may have changed, their artwork could be bizarre or concerning, pupils might write stories or poetry that reveal confusion, distress or extreme beliefs, or physical but inconclusive signs may have been noticed. In these circumstances, staff will give the pupil the opportunity to talk. The signs they have noticed may be due to a variety of factors, for example, a parent has moved out, a pet has died, a grandparent is very ill. It is fine for staff to ask the pupil how they are feeling or if they can help in any way.
250. Staff should report their concerns as outlined in Reporting safeguarding concerns section.

Reporting safeguarding concerns

251. Reporting procedures will be fully explained to all staff to ensure concerns are reported quickly and records are as concise and unambiguous as possible.
252. All concerns, suspicions and disclosures should be recorded using the school’s online safeguarding management system. For supply staff, volunteers or visitors to school, the school’s safeguarding concern form (see Appendix 6) should be used to report concerns. Blank copies of the safeguarding concern form should be kept in the main office and staffroom for access when necessary.
253. Staff should immediately report:
- Any suspicion that a child is injured, marked, or bruised in a way which is not readily attributable to the normal knocks or scrapes received in play
 - Any explanation given which appears inconsistent or suspicious
 - Any behaviours which give rise to suspicions that a child may have suffered harm (e.g., significant changes in behaviour, worrying drawings or play)
 - Any concerns that a child may be suffering from inadequate care, ill treatment, or emotional maltreatment
 - Any concerns that a child is presenting signs or symptoms of abuse or neglect
 - Any significant changes in a child’s presentation, including nonattendance
 - Any hint or disclosure of abuse or neglect received from the child, or from any other person, including disclosures of abuse or neglect perpetrated by adults outside of the family or by other children or children and young people
 - Any concerns related to self-harm
 - Any concerns regarding person(s) who may pose a risk to children (e.g., staff in school or a person living in a household with children present) including inappropriate behaviour e.g. inappropriate

- sexual comments; excessive one-to-one attention beyond the requirements of their usual role and responsibilities; or inappropriate sharing of images
- Any discovery that FGM appears to have taken place on a girl under 18 years
 - Any expressions of extremist ideologies that suggest vulnerability to radicalisation
254. Where no disclosure has been made, but a member of staff has concerns regarding the welfare or well-being of a pupil, staff should raise a concern on the online safeguarding management system. Supply staff, volunteers and visitors to the school should make a written account of such concerns using Part 1 of the Safeguarding Concern Form and Part 3 if applicable (Appendix 6).
255. Where a disclosure has been made, a written factual account record, using the child's own words, should be recorded on the safeguarding management system. Supply staff, volunteers and visitors to the school who do not have access to the safeguarding management system should do this by completing Part 1 and Part 2 of the Safeguarding Concern Form (and Part 3 if applicable).
256. When logging a concern, professional opinion may be expressed, but should be supported by stating the facts with observations upon which the opinion is based (e.g. Adam appeared angry as he was kicking the table and swearing). All notes should differentiate clearly between fact, opinion, interpretation, observation, and/or allegation.
257. All written concerns should be logged on the online system as soon as possible and in any case within 24 hours. In the case of supply staff, volunteers and visitors to the school, written forms should be passed to the Designated Safeguarding Lead as soon as is possible, and in any case within 24 hours. In some cases, it may be necessary to pass on concerns verbally and follow them up in writing soon after. In the absence of this person, the deputy designated safeguarding lead should be approached.
258. Any written records should be dated and signed with the name of the signatory clearly printed. Any handwritten notes made immediately after the event can act as evidence of them being written at the time in any future court case. Therefore, these should not be destroyed if the details are recorded more formally, but instead kept securely attached to the safeguarding concern form. All written notes should either be kept in the pupil safeguarding file and referenced on the online database or uploaded on to the system.
259. Staff will follow the reporting procedures outlined in this standard operating procedure. However, anybody can make a direct referral. They may share information directly with children's social care, Police, or the NSPCC if:
- The situation is an emergency and the designated safeguarding lead, their deputy, the principal and the chair of governors are all unavailable
 - They are convinced that a direct report is the only way to ensure the pupil's safety
260. Key points for staff to remember for taking action are:
- Report the concern to the designated safeguarding lead, before the end of the school day if a child is being placed at risk by going home or within 24 hours at the latest
 - In an emergency, take the action necessary to help and protect the child, for example, call 999
 - Not to start their own investigation
 - Share information on a need-to-know basis only – do not discuss the issue with colleagues, friends, or family
 - Record the concern on the online platform (e.g., Safeguard, CPOMS etc)
 - Seek support if distressed

Responding to safeguarding concerns

261. A concern raised may not progress any further than a discussion with the designated safeguarding lead. A record of the discussion and any initial action taken will be documented on the safeguarding management system.
262. When dealing with a case, the designated safeguarding lead will consider a number of questions.
 - Am I dealing with 'risk' or 'need'? (by definition, a child at risk is also a child in need. However, what is the priority/level and immediacy of risk/need?)
 - Can the level of need identified be met:
 - in or by the school or by accessing universal services without referral to Children's Social Care or other targeted services?
 - by working with the child, parents and colleagues?
 - What resources are available to me/the school and what are their limitations?
 - Is the level of need such that a referral needs to be made to Children's Social Care which requests that an assessment of need be undertaken?
 - Is the level and/or likelihood of risk such that a child protection referral needs to be made (i.e. a child is suffering or is likely to suffer significant harm?)
 - What information is available to me: child, parents, family and environment?
 - What information is inaccessible and potentially, how significant might this be?
 - Who do I/don't I need to speak to now and what do they need to know?
 - Where can I access appropriate advice and/or support?
 - If I am not going to refer, then what action am I going to take?
263. The designated safeguarding lead will make a referral to children's social care if it is believed that a pupil is suffering or is at risk of suffering significant harm. The pupil (subject to their age and understanding) and the parents will be told that a referral is being made, unless to do so would increase the risk to the child.
264. In making this decision, the designated safeguarding lead will consider the Safeguarding Partners' threshold document and framework for action that includes:
 - the process for the early help assessment and the type and level of early help services to be provided
 - the criteria, including the level of need, for when a case should be referred to local authority children's social care for assessment and for statutory services
265. Where a designated safeguarding lead or deputy designated safeguarding lead considers that a referral to children's social care may be required, they must consider the questions listed below.
 - Is this a child in need? Under section 17 (s.17 (10)) of the Children Act 1989, a child is 'in need' if:
 - The child is unlikely to achieve or maintain, or to have the opportunity to achieve or maintain, a reasonable standard of health or development, without the provision of services by a local authority
 - The child's health or development is likely to be impaired, or further impaired, without the provision of such services
 - The child is disabled
 - Is this a child protection matter? Under section 47(1) of the Children Act 1989, a local authority has a duty to make enquiries where they are informed that a child who lives or is found in their area:
 - Is the subject of an emergency protection order
 - Is under police protection

- Or where they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering or is likely to suffer significant harm
266. Therefore, it is the 'significant harm' threshold that justifies statutory intervention into family life. A professional making a child protection referral under s.47 must therefore provide information which clearly outlines that a child is suffering or is likely to suffer significant harm. The designated safeguarding lead will make judgements around 'significant harm', levels of 'need and risk' and when to refer.
267. Once a referral has been made, children's social care should respond within one working day indicating what further action they have decided to take. This may include further assessment of the child either through an early help assessment, through a child in need assessment (section 17 Children Act 1989) or a child protection enquiry (section 47 Children Act 1989). The school will participate in strategy discussions and child protection conferences as required.
268. Referrals regarding extremism will be made to children's social care. In line with government advice, a Channel co-ordinator/police practitioner will be fully embedded in the safeguarding arrangements of children's social care if required. Where assessment does not indicate a genuine vulnerability to being drawn into terrorism, a case will be signposted to other more appropriate support services following consultation with the LADO.

Safeguarding procedures in the event of a partial or full school closure

269. There are some exceptional and emergency circumstances that may arise when it is necessary to temporarily close the whole or part of a school.
270. Where there is a partial or full closure of the school, there is an expectation that there will be regular contact and support for vulnerable children. Where possible, children identified as being vulnerable will attend school.
271. Appendix 13 outlines safeguarding procedures in the event of a partial or full school closure. These procedures should be read in conjunction with the main policy.
272. It is important in any event that safeguarding principles always remain the same:
- The best interests of children must always continue to come first
 - If anyone in a school or college has a safeguarding concern about any child they should continue to act and act immediately
 - A DSL or deputy should be available
 - It is essential that unsuitable people are not allowed to enter the children's workforce and/or gain access to children
 - Children should continue to be protected when they are online

Record keeping – child protection

273. A child protection file will be started for an individual child as soon as the school is aware of any child protection concerns about them (online/paper based). This may arise in a number of ways:
- Where a member of staff raises a concern about the welfare or well-being of a pupil (this should be recorded on the safeguarding management system (CPOMS) or, in the case of supply staff, volunteers and visitors to the school, in writing using Appendix 6 Part 1 (and 3 if applicable))
 - Where a child makes a disclosure (this should be recorded on the safeguarding management system or, in the case of supply staff, volunteers and visitors to the school, in writing using Appendix 6 Part 1 and 2 (and 3 if applicable))
 - Where information is passed to the school by a previous school attended by the pupil

- Where the school is alerted by another agency (e.g., police, health or social care) of child protection concerns about that child
274. The child protection file will have a front sheet (see Appendix 9) on the file which records the child's full name, date of birth, address, and information about family members.
 275. Separate files will be kept for individual siblings, cross referencing to other children in the family. Relevant, and as necessary, redacted information will be copied and placed on each individual sibling's file.
 276. If more than one file exists in relation to an individual child, this will be indicated on each file. Each file will be numbered and dated (e.g., January 2015, Vol. 1 of 3).
 277. If information is removed from the file for any reason, a record should be made indicating the reason for such removal, where the information has gone, when it was removed and who removed it (see Appendix 10). The designated safeguarding lead will be notified of the removal of any information from a file.
 278. The child protection file will contain:
 - A front sheet (see Appendix 9)
 - A detailed chronology, updated on a regular basis, at the front of the file (see Appendix 11)
 - Any concerns raised by staff
 - All safeguarding/concern reports, notes and correspondence referring to the child
 - Copies of any referrals
 - Any child protection information received from previous schools or other agencies
 - Notes/minutes of any child protection conferences etc.
 - Record of any instances where information has been removed from the file
 279. The school will record in SIMS whether the child is subject to a child protection plan or if they are a child in care.
 280. The child protection file will also cross-reference other relevant records held in school (e.g. relating to the Common Assessment Framework (CAF)/Early Help Assessment (EHA), early support, special educational need).
 281. All records of child protection concerns, disclosures or allegations will be treated as sensitive information and kept together. Child protection information will be stored separately from the pupil's school file and the school file will be 'tagged' to indicate that separate information is held. All staff who may need to consult a child's school file will be made aware of what the symbol means, and who to consult if they see this symbol. The information will be shared with those who need to have it.
 282. All child protection files will be kept together in a secure place. The filing system will be accessed via the designated safeguarding lead. Any electronic information will be password protected and only made available to relevant individuals.
 283. Child protection information will be stored and handled in line with Data Protection Act 1998 principles such that information is:
 - Processed for limited purposes
 - Adequate, relevant and not excessive
 - Accurate
 - Kept no longer than necessary
 - Processed in accordance with the data subject's rights
 - Secure

284. Every effort will be made to prevent unauthorised access, and sensitive information will not be stored on laptop computers, which, by the nature of their portability, could be lost or stolen. If it is necessary to store child protection information on portable media, such as a CD or flash drive, these items will also be kept in locked storage.
285. In relation to safeguarding, UK GDPR does not prevent, or limit, the sharing of information for the purposes of keeping children safe. Information can be shared without consent if not doing so would place a child at risk. For further information regarding this please see the Data Protection policy.

Record transfers

286. It is imperative that relevant child protection information is forwarded to the new/receiving establishment by the establishment that the subject child is departing and that this happens as quickly as possible.
287. Such information sharing should occur between designated safeguarding leads and/or principal as soon as possible and, in any event, within 5 days of the child's departure.
288. When a file is to be transferred, a 'Record of Child Protection File Transfer' should be completed and attached to the child protection file (see Appendix 12).
289. It is inappropriate to simply forward all relevant documentation as this leaves the former school with no record. Rather:
 - Where feasible, designated safeguarding leads from former and receiving schools should arrange to meet and share relevant information, with copies of relevant and appropriate documentation being provided, or
 - Alternatively, telephone discussions should take place followed-up with appropriate summaries / chronologies and copies of key records
290. The new school/college should be provided with the ORIGINAL documentation.
291. Where a parent elects for home education, the child is from a traveller, migrant or Romany family, and/or where the receiving school's identity is not known, the designated safeguarding lead at the former school should contact children's social care for advice.

Access to child protection files

292. The safety and welfare of a child must always be considered when making decisions whether to share confidential information.
293. A child who has a child protection file has the right to access their personal record. This is known as the right of subject access under the Data Protection Act 2018. Parents (i.e. those with parental responsibility in law) may exercise the right of subject access on behalf of their child if they are unable to act on their own behalf or give their permission. As a general guide, a child of 13 or older is expected to be mature enough to make this kind of request independently or provide permission.
294. Access to the information on file should be on a need-to-know basis among the staff. This can only be decided on a case-by-case basis. The confidentiality of the child and family should be respected as far as possible, but the welfare of the child is paramount. It would be unlikely that every member of staff needs to know the details of a case. Generally speaking, the closer the day-to-day contact with the child, the more likely the need to know an outline of the case. Essentially, if someone receives information in his/her professional capacity and the person giving that information believes it will be treated securely, and that belief is reasonable, then the recipient of the information will be under a duty to treat it securely.

External bodies

295. In the majority of cases, schools will be able to share personal information using the lawful basis of public task (personal data) and substantial public interest (special category data). There may be circumstances where the child and family's consent to sharing should be sought. If consent has been withheld, this must be recorded, including the reason given for withholding consent. Exceptions to the requirement to gain consent are that if seeking such consent could:
- Increase the risk of harm to the child or someone else
 - Undermine the prevention, detection or prosecution of a serious crime (a crime that causes or is likely to cause significant harm to a child, young person or adult)
 - Interfere with any potential investigation
296. The names of any other children, other than the pupil who is the subject of the record, should be removed when disclosing records, unless consent is obtained from the individual(s) concerned (or their parent/carer on their behalf). Care should be taken to ensure all identifying information is removed from the copy of the record to be shared.
297. Child protection information should not ordinarily be shared with agencies other than statutory agencies such as the Police (e.g., information should not be released to solicitors etc). Where such a request is made, advice should be sought from HR.
298. If there is a police request for the child protection information, please ensure that the requesting officers provide a data request form. This form will show the information the police are requesting, who the request relates to, why the police are requesting the information, and the exemption they are relying on to process the information. The school should securely retain a copy of this form.
299. Conversations between designated personnel at different schools (e.g., sharing concerns or asking for information about sibling groups) are perfectly acceptable under the lawful bases of public task and substantial public interest. As mentioned, there may be occasions when consent is the most appropriate lawful basis, where possible consent should be sought from parents before such a conversation takes place. Any relevant child protection information coming to light should be carefully logged.

Retention of child protection files

300. According to current guidance from the Records Management Society's Schools Retention Schedule, records must be kept (securely) until the subject's 25th birthday, after which they should be shredded (child protection records relating to children's social care involvement will be retained for much longer than this by the local authority in any event).
301. The Data Protection Act requires that schools, or other bodies that keep information, maintain a list of records which have been destroyed and who authorised their destruction. Members of staff should record at least:
- File reference (or other unique identifier)
 - File title (or brief description)
 - Number of files (and date range)
 - The name of the authorising officer
 - Date action taken
302. This must be kept in the establishment record of destruction form.

Support for those involved in a child protection issue

303. The school will support pupils, their families, and staff by:

- Taking all suspicions and disclosures seriously
 - Nominating a link person (designated safeguarding lead) who will keep all parties informed and be the central point of contact
 - Nominating separate link people for the child and member of staff, where a member of staff is the subject of an allegation made by a pupil, to avoid any conflict of interest
 - Responding sympathetically to any request from pupils or staff for time out to deal with distress or anxiety
 - Maintaining confidentiality and sharing information on a need-to-know basis only with relevant individuals and agencies
 - Storing records securely
 - Offering details of helplines, counselling, or other avenues of external support
 - Following the procedures laid down in the school's whistleblowing, complaints, and disciplinary procedures
 - Cooperating fully with relevant statutory agencies
 - Making sure a neutral interpreter is available when English is not the child's first language
304. The school recognises that children who are abused or who witness violence may find it difficult to develop a sense of self-worth and to view the world in a positive way. This school may be the only stable, secure and predictable element in the lives of children at risk. Whilst at school, their behaviour may still be challenging and defiant and there may even be moves to consider suspension or exclusion from school.
305. The school will endeavour to support pupils through:
- The curriculum, to encourage self-esteem and self-motivation
 - The school ethos, which promotes a positive, supportive and secure environment and which gives all pupils and adults a sense of being respected and valued
 - The implementation of behaviour management policies
 - A consistent approach, which recognises and separates the cause of behaviour from that which the child displays. This is vital to ensure that all children are supported within the school setting
 - Regular liaison with other professionals and agencies who support the pupils and their families, in-line with appropriate confidentiality parameters
 - A commitment to develop productive, supportive relationships with parents, whenever possible and so long as it is in the child's best interests to do so
 - The development and support of a responsive and knowledgeable staff group trained to respond appropriately in child protection situations

Safer recruitment

306. The school will adhere to the guidance set out in Keeping children safe in education part 3, which states that "It is vital that schools and colleges create a culture of safe recruitment and, as part of that, adopt recruitment procedures that help deter, reject or identify people who might abuse children."
307. The School has a robust process for recruitment and selection which highlights its commitment to safer recruitment and the Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2009 and Childcare Act 2006.

Allegations against members of staff

308. The Keeping children safe in education statutory guidance (2026) (KCSIE) defines two types of allegations that may be made against staff or volunteers:

- Allegations that may meet the harm threshold
 - Allegations/concerns that do not meet the harms threshold – referred to for the purposes of this policy as ‘low level concerns’
309. Clear processes are in place for managing both types of allegations or concerns, as detailed below and in the flowchart at Appendix 8.
310. If Fulwood received an allegation relating to an incident where an individual or organisation using our premises for an activity involving children the we will follow our safeguarding procedures and in the LADO.
311. Any allegations towards staff found to be false or malicious will be dealt with in accordance with the behaviour policy.

Allegations that may meet the harm threshold

312. If anyone makes an allegation that any member of staff (including supply staff, volunteer or governor) may have:
- Behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child and/or;
 - Possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child and/or;
 - Behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates he or she would pose a risk of harm to children (including the promotion of extreme ideologies) and/or.
 - Behaved or may have behaved in a way that indicates they may not be suitable to work with children the allegation will be dealt with in accordance with national guidance and agreements.

313. The flowchart in Appendix 8 outlines the steps when dealing with an allegation against a member of staff.
314. Following reporting of the concern, the principal will use the ‘Safeguarding Concerns Form – Allegations against Staff’ (Appendix 7a) to record the details, or in the case of a staff report if the staff member prefers they can complete and return the relevant sections of the form to the principal.
315. The principal will handle such allegations as case manager, unless the allegation is against the principal, in which case a senior member of the Trust will act as case manager and handle the school’s response, with support from the HR Team.
316. In the event that the concern is about the principal, this will be reported to the Trust who will support the staff member to complete the ‘Safeguarding Concerns Form – Allegations against Staff’ (Appendix 7a)
317. Where an allegation is made against the principal, the case manager must inform the Chair of Governors and keep them updated regarding the case.
318. In all instances, the case manager will inform the Trust and HR team as soon as the school becomes aware of any allegation against a staff member and the investigation process should not commence until advice has been sought.
319. The case manager must discuss the allegation with the local authority designated officer (LADO), with advice and support from the Trust and HR team, as appropriate.
320. Parents or carers of a child or children involved will be told about the allegation as soon as possible if they do not already know. However, there will be some cases that require a strategy discussion with children’s social care and/or the police and it will be within the strategy discussion that decisions are made as to what information can be disclosed to parents or carers.

321. In the event of an allegation being made, the school will make every effort to maintain confidentiality and guard against unwanted publicity. Parents and carers will be made aware that under s141F of the Education Act 2011, there is a prohibition on reporting or publishing allegations about teachers, this includes via social media and if breached this could lead to prosecution. If parents or carers wish to apply to the court to have reporting restrictions removed, they will be advised to seek legal advice.
322. Staff who are the subject of an allegation have the right to have their case dealt with fairly, quickly and consistently and to be kept informed of its progress. Suspension is not mandatory, nor is it automatic but, in some cases, staff may be suspended where this is deemed to be the best way to ensure that children are protected.
323. The case manager, with the support of the Trust and HR team, must complete a risk assessment (Appendix 7b) where it is deemed that an allegation may meet the harm threshold. This should be held in a secure case file, with a copy also placed on the employee's personnel file. For more detail relating to the requirements to store documentation please refer to the Record Keeping – Allegations against staff section below.
324. The timing of when the risk assessment is completed will depend on the specific circumstances of the case and would normally be carried out following the completion of the initial fact find and discussion with the LADO. However, it may be necessary to update the assessment of risk and therefore actions required to mitigate the risk as any investigation progresses, or as an outcome is agreed upon. Updated versions should have appropriate version control and there should be a record of each updated version.
325. The school in liaison with the Trust and HR team may make a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) if any member of staff is disciplined, dismissed, or leaves prior to the end of an investigation for causing emotional, psychological, physical or sexual harm, neglect or risk of harm to children.
326. The school, in liaison with Trust and HR team, may make a referral to the Teacher Referral Agency (TRA) if any member of teaching staff is disciplined, dismissed, or leaves prior to the end of an investigation for causing emotional, psychological, physical or sexual harm, neglect or risk of harm to children.
327. If an allegation is made against a worker from a supply agency, the agency must be informed of the allegation. Allegations against supply staff will be investigated in line with the agreed procedure detailed above for directly employed staff. The findings of any investigation undertaken, where appropriate, should be passed on to the supply agency for it to consider any further action required. It is not acceptable to simply end the assignment in such circumstances.
328. Any allegations towards staff found to be false or malicious will be dealt with in accordance with the behaviour policy.

Allegations/concerns that do not meet the harms threshold

329. It is recognised that, at times, a concern about an adult's conduct towards pupils may not be serious enough to be considered as an allegation, but that it nonetheless indicates a concern.
330. A low-level concern is defined as any concern about an adult's behaviour towards, or concerning, a child that does not meet the harms threshold, or is otherwise not serious enough to consider a referral at the time of its reporting. Low level concerns refer to behaviour on the part of a staff member towards pupils that is considered inappropriate in line with statutory safeguarding advice, as outlined in Keeping children safe in education (2026).
331. Examples of such behaviour could include, but are not limited to:
 - Being over friendly with children
 - Having favourites

- Taking photographs of children on their mobile phone
 - Engaging with a child on a one-to-one basis in a secluded area or behind a closed door
 - Using inappropriate sexualised, intimidating, or offensive language.
332. Such behaviour can exist on a wide spectrum, from the inadvertent or thoughtless, or behaviour that may look to be inappropriate, but might not be in specific circumstances, through to that which is ultimately intended to enable abuse.
 333. The school recognises the importance of creating a culture of openness and transparency, where any concern, no matter how small, is shared and dealt with appropriately. Such a culture supports in identifying and addressing any emerging or inappropriate behaviour at an early stage, minimising the risk of abuse and reinforcing clear professional boundaries.
 334. Staff are required to report any low-level concern about the conduct of any adult working in the school to the principal.
 335. Following reporting of the concern the principal will use the 'Safeguarding Concerns Form – Allegations against Staff' (Appendix 7a) to record the details, or if the staff member prefers, they can complete and return the form to the principal.
 336. In the event that the concern is about the principal, this should be reported to the Trust team who will support the staff member to complete the 'Safeguarding Concerns Form – Allegations against Staff' (Appendix 7a)
 337. Staff are encouraged to recognise any occasion where their own behaviour may be seen as a low-level concern by others, and to make a self-report to the principal accordingly.
 338. If a report is identified as a low-level concern timely and proportionate action will be taken to discuss and address this with the person concerned in order to correct the issue at an early stage. The actions should be recorded on the 'Safeguarding Concerns – Allegations against Staff' form (Appendix 7a).
 339. If at any stage the case manager assesses that the harms threshold may be met, they will follow the process outlined above for allegations that may meet the harms threshold.
 340. The principal will keep a written record of all low-level concerns, by retaining a copy of Appendix 7a and completing the Safeguarding Concerns spreadsheet, summarised in Appendix 7c, detailing the nature of the concern and the action taken to address it. The record will be clearly identified as a low-level concern, in order to avoid confusion or misunderstanding.
 341. If the concern relates to the principal, Trust will retain a copy of Appendix 7a and complete the Safeguarding Concerns spreadsheet (Appendix 7c).
 342. Records of low-level concerns will not be referred to in employer references unless they form part of a substantiated allegation and will not be held on the employee's personnel file.
 343. For more detail relating to the requirements to store documentation please refer to the Record Keeping – Allegations against staff section below.
 344. The principal, will regularly review all low-level concerns received, in order to identify any emerging patterns of concerning behaviour related to individual(s) or to identify any weaknesses in the school's culture where revision of policy or additional training may be a requirement.
 345. Any allegations towards staff found to be false or malicious will be dealt with in accordance with the behaviour policy.

Record Keeping – Allegations against staff

346. All records will be kept together in a secure place. The filing system will be accessed via the designated safeguarding lead. Any electronic information will be password protected and only made available to relevant individuals.
347. Information relating to allegations against staff of a safeguarding nature will be stored and handled in line with UK General Data Protection Legislation tailored by the Data Protection Act 1998 such that information is:
- Processed for limited purposes
 - Adequate, relevant, and not excessive
 - Accurate
 - Kept no longer than necessary
 - Processed in accordance with the data subject's rights
 - Secure

Allegations that may meet the harm threshold

348. All documentation relating to an allegation that may meet the harms threshold will be retained in a secure case file.
349. Documentation will also be held on the individual's personnel file, unless the allegation is found to be malicious or false, in which case they should not be included. Such documents may include, but are not limited to:
- A copy of the Safeguarding Concerns – Allegations against staff form (Appendix 7a)
 - A copy of the Safeguarding Risk Assessment – Allegations against staff form (Appendix 7b)
 - A summary held on the Safeguarding Concerns Spreadsheet (Appendix 7c)
 - The LADO referral form
 - Suspension letter
 - Disciplinary investigation report
 - Disciplinary outcome letter and any appeal documents
 - DBS and/or TRA referral documents and outcome notifications
350. Documents relating to safeguarding allegations will be placed on the personnel file in a sealed envelope marked as 'Confidential'.
351. The school will have a secure file location for the storage of any documents related to safeguarding allegations against staff. These files should be restricted for access by the principal and DSL only.
352. Records which contain information about allegations of sexual abuse for the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA), will be preserved for the term of the inquiry (further information can be found on the IICSA website).
353. All other records will be retained at least until the accused has reached normal pension age or for a period of 10 years from the date of the allegation if that is longer.
354. Any allegations towards staff found to be false or malicious will be dealt with in accordance with the behaviour policy.

Allegations/concerns that do not meet the harms threshold

355. All documentation relating to an allegation that does not meet the harms threshold (a low level concern) will be retained in a secure case file.

356. They will not be held on the individual's personnel file and will not be referred to when providing employment references.
357. A copy of the Safeguarding Concerns – Allegations against staff form (Appendix 7a) will be retained, and the concern will be recorded on the Safeguarding Concerns spreadsheet (Appendix 7c).
358. The requirements to retain documentation in a secure file are the same as for dealing with cases that may meet the harms threshold.
359. Information relating to low level concerns will be retained at least until the individual leaves the trust's employment.
360. Any allegations towards staff found to be false or malicious will be dealt with in accordance with the behaviour policy.

External speakers and charities

361. As outlined in the External Speakers and Charities policy, external speakers and charities will be vetted to ensure pupils are not exposed to inappropriate political or controversial messages and charitable activity is free from harm and consistent with the values of the school.

Use of mobile phones and cameras

362. In line with the Data Protection Act 2018, and the UK GDPR, for certain types of processing schools must seek parental consent to take photographs and use video recorders.
363. On admission, parents will be asked to sign their consent for photographs/video recordings to be taken in school and used for the purposes of promoting the school in internal documents (e.g. staff newsletters), on school intranet sites, school websites, social media sites and in media articles. Parental consent is sought until the age of 13 when, in line with guidance regarding data protection, the consent of the child is sought. Consent will be valid for the full academic life of the child, unless the child's circumstances change in any way (e.g. parental responsibility is amended). If the child's circumstances change additional consent forms will need to be completed. Photographs and video recordings can be used in accordance with the consent gained for a period of four years after the photograph/video was taken/recorded. This does not cover any other organisation and if any other organisation requests to take photographs of any child, then separate consent before photographs are taken will be sought.
364. For any looked after children (LAC) or children who are adopted the designated safeguarding lead will liaise with the child's social worker, carer or adoptive parents to establish whether consent should be sought. Consideration will be given as to whether the identification of a LAC pupil, or children who are adopted, would risk their security in any way.
365. Consideration will be given to any children for whom child protection concerns have been raised. Should the designated safeguarding lead believe that taking photographs or videos of any children would put their security at further risk, greater care will be taken towards protecting their identity.
366. Measures that can be agreed by the Designated Safeguarding Lead regarding LAC, children who are adopted, or children for whom child protection concerns are as follows:
 - Photographs and videos can be taken as per usual procedures
 - Photographs and videos can be taken for educational purposes and official school use, e.g., on SIMS, but cannot be published online or in external media
 - No photographs and videos can be taken at any time or for any purpose

367. Staff and volunteers are not permitted to use their own mobile phones or cameras to take or record images of children. Pupils are not permitted to use their own mobile phones or cameras to take or record any images of children during session times.
368. The school's digital camera(s) or memory cards must not leave the school setting unless on an official school trip. Photographs will be printed/uploaded in the setting by staff and once done images will be immediately removed from the camera's memory. It is acknowledged that often photographs may contain other children in the background.
369. It is acknowledged that often photographs/video recordings may contain other children in the background, however, guidance should be sought from the Designated Safeguarding Lead regarding those photographs/video recordings that contain LAC, children who are adopted and children for whom there are child protection concerns in the background.
370. Cameras and mobile phones are prohibited in all toilet areas.

Concerns about safeguarding practices

371. Staff and volunteers should feel able to raise concerns about poor or unsafe practice and potential failures in the school's safeguarding regime.
372. Where staff or volunteers wish to raise concerns, they should be raised with the school's management team.
373. Where a staff member feels unable to raise the issue with the school or feels that their genuine concerns are not being addressed, they should raise their concerns under the Whistleblowing policy. Other whistleblowing channels may be open to them.
374. The NSPCC also provide an alternative route for reporting concerns, staff can email help@nspcc.org.uk or call their helpline 0800 028 0285.

Complaints

375. The complaints procedure will be followed where a pupil or parent raises a concern about poor safeguarding practices.

Induction

376. All new members of staff will undergo an induction that includes familiarisation with the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection policy and identification of their child protection training needs.
377. The Induction process outlines the procedures for the induction of new staff.
378. New staff will be inducted fully so that they are able to contribute towards safeguarding and promoting the welfare of pupils.
379. Induction includes ensuring new staff are:
 - Aware of school systems and structures for supporting the wellbeing of pupils (including online safety)
 - Provided with adequate training on safeguarding issues and policy including Safeguarding and Child Protection policy, Staff Code of Conduct, Behaviour policy, Social Media policy and the school's safeguarding response for children who go missing in education (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026)
 - Introduced to the designated safeguarding leads
 - Made aware of the early help process
 - Made aware of the process for reporting concerns

380. All staff will sign to confirm they have received these documents and will adhere to the protocols set out.

Training

381. Designated safeguarding leads will be expected to refresh their DSL training every two years. This will focus on identifying abuse, local reporting arrangements and disseminating training to school staff.
382. All staff will participate in training on safeguarding on a regular basis and the school will ensure staff are aware of any safeguarding and child protection updates. The school will provide training to all existing staff at least once a year and all new staff during their induction (as outlined in the previous section). This training will focus on identifying and reporting abuse, neglect and exploitation and safe working practices. Staff will be advised to maintain an attitude of 'it could happen here' where safeguarding is concerned.
383. Awareness of Prevent should include:
- An awareness and understanding of the Prevent agenda and their role within it
 - The ability to use existing expertise and professional judgement to recognise potentially vulnerable individuals who may be susceptible to messages of violence and radicalisation
 - The confidence to use a common sense-based response
 - The designated safeguarding lead will also be encouraged to undertake the Channel general awareness online training module as a supplementary source of support
384. As part of the safeguarding training, staff and volunteers will be given a copy of the Safeguarding and Child Protection policy, Staff Code of Conduct, Social Media policy, Behaviour policy and the school's safeguarding response for children who go missing in education (part of the Attendance Policy) (Keeping children safe in education, DfE, 2026). All staff will sign to confirm they have received these documents and will adhere to the protocols set out (Appendix 5)
385. Supply staff and other visitors will be given the school's visitor guide, which outlines core safeguarding measures.
386. All governors will receive appropriate child protection and safeguarding training that is updated regularly.
387. Governing bodies should also have regard to the Teachers' Standards, which set out the expectation that all teachers manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe educational environment and requires teachers to have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with mental health needs.
388. Appropriate members of staff will undertake safer recruitment training. This will enable them to lead in the recruitment of staff and will provide more options for the school when ensuring at least one member of every selection panel is safer recruitment trained.

Related school policies

389. The Safeguarding and Child Protection policy should be read in conjunction with the following policies and procedures:
- Anti-Bullying policy
 - Attendance and Punctuality policy
 - Behaviour policy
 - Complaints policy
 - Data Protection policy

The designated safeguarding lead has additional responsibilities include providing advice and support to other staff on child welfare, safeguarding and child protection matters, including monitoring and filtering, taking part in strategy discussions and inter-agency meetings, and/or supporting other staff to do so, and to contributing to the assessment of children.

Deputy designated safeguarding leads

It is a matter for individual schools as to whether they choose to have one or more deputy designated safeguarding leads. Any deputies should be trained to the same standard as the designated safeguarding lead and the role should be explicit in their job description. Whilst the activities of the designated safeguarding lead can be delegated to appropriately trained deputies, the ultimate lead responsibility for child protection, as set out above, remains with the designated safeguarding lead, this lead responsibility should not be delegated.

Availability

During term time the designated safeguarding lead (or a deputy) should always be available (during school hours) for staff in the school to discuss any safeguarding concerns. Whilst generally speaking the designated safeguarding lead (or deputy) would be expected to be available in person, it is a matter for individual schools, working with the designated safeguarding lead, to define what “available” means and whether in exceptional circumstances availability via phone and or other such media is acceptable.

It is a matter for individual schools and the designated safeguarding lead to arrange adequate and appropriate cover arrangements for any out of hours/out of term activities.

Manage referrals

The designated safeguarding lead is expected to refer cases:

- of suspected abuse, neglect and exploitation to the local authority children’s social care as required and support staff who make referrals to local authority children’s social care
- to the Channel programme where there is a radicalisation concern as required and support staff who make referrals to the Channel programme
- where a person is dismissed or left due to risk/harm to a child to the Disclosure and Barring Service as required
- where a crime may have been committed to the Police as required. NPCC - When to call the police should help understand when to consider calling the police and what to expect when working with the police

- act as a source of support, advice, and expertise for all staff
- act as a point of contact with the safeguarding partners
- liaise with the headteacher or principal to inform him or her of issues- especially ongoing enquiries under section 47 of the Children Act 1989 and police investigations

- as required, liaise with the “case manager” (as per Part four) and the local authority designated officer(s) (LADO) for child protection concerns in cases which concern a staff member
- liaise with staff (especially teachers, pastoral support staff, school nurses, IT technicians, senior mental health leads and special educational needs coordinators (SENCO’s) and senior mental health leads) on matters of safety and safeguarding and welfare (including online and digital safety) and when deciding whether to make a referral by liaising with relevant agencies so that children’s needs are considered holistically
- liaise with the senior mental health lead and, where available, the mental health support team, where safeguarding concerns are linked to mental health
- promote supportive engagement with parents and/or carers in safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, including where families may be facing challenging circumstances
 - work with the headteacher and relevant strategic leads, taking lead responsibility for promoting educational outcomes by knowing the welfare, safeguarding and child protection issues that children in need are experiencing, or have experienced, and identifying the impact that these issues might be having on children’s attendance, engagement, and achievement at school. This includes:
 - ensuring that the school knows who its cohort of children who have or have had a social worker are, understanding their academic progress and attainment, and maintaining a culture of high aspirations for this cohort
 - supporting teaching staff to provide additional academic support or reasonable adjustments to help children who have or have had a social worker reach their potential, recognising that even when statutory social care intervention has ended, there is still a lasting impact on children’s educational outcomes

Information sharing and managing the child protection file

Information should be kept confidential and stored securely. It is good practice to keep concerns and referrals in a separate child protection file for each child.

- a clear and comprehensive summary of the concern
- details of how the concern was followed up and resolved
- a note of any action taken, decisions reached and the outcome

They should ensure the file is only accessed by those who need to see it and where the file or content within it is shared, this happens in line with information sharing advice as set out in Part one and Part two of this guidance.

Where children leave the school (including in year transfers) the designated safeguarding lead should ensure their child protection file is transferred to the new school as soon as possible, and within 5 days for an in-year transfer or within the first 5 days of the start of a new term. This should be transferred separately from the main pupil file, ensuring secure transit, and confirmation of receipt should be obtained.

Lack of information about their circumstances can impact on the child's safety, welfare and educational outcomes. In addition to the child protection file, the designated safeguarding lead should also consider if it would be appropriate to share any additional information with the new school in advance of a child leaving to help them put in place the right support to safeguard this child and to help the child thrive in the school. For example, information that would allow the new school to continue supporting children who have had a social worker and been victims of abuse and have that support in place for when the child arrives.

Raising Awareness

The designated safeguarding lead should:

- ensure each member of staff has access to, and understands, the school's child protection policy and procedures, especially new and part-time staff
- ensure the child protection policy is available publicly and parents know that referrals about suspected abuse or neglect may be made and the role of the school in this
- link with the safeguarding partner arrangements to make sure staff are aware of any training opportunities and the latest local policies on local safeguarding arrangements
- help promote educational outcomes by sharing the information about the welfare, safeguarding and child protection issues that children who have or have had a social worker are experiencing with teachers and school leadership staff
- Ensuring all staff know the expectations, roles and responsibilities around monitoring and filtering.

Training, knowledge and skills

The designated safeguarding lead (and any deputies) should undergo training to provide them with the knowledge and skills required to carry out the role. This training should be updated at least every two years. The designated safeguarding lead (and any deputies) should undertake Prevent awareness training. Training should provide designated safeguarding leads with a good understanding of their own role, how to identify, understand and respond to specific needs that can increase the vulnerability of children, as well as specific harms that can put children at risk, and the processes, procedures and responsibilities of other agencies, particularly local authority children's social care, so they:

- understand the assessment process for providing early help and statutory intervention, including local criteria for action and local authority children's social care referral arrangements
 - have a working knowledge of how local authorities conduct a child protection case conference and a child protection review conference and be able to attend and contribute to these effectively when required to do so
 - understand the importance of the role the designated safeguarding lead has in providing information and support to local authority children social care in order to safeguard and promote the welfare of children
- understand the lasting impact that adversity and trauma can have, including on children's behaviour, mental health, and wellbeing, and what is needed in responding to this in promoting educational outcomes

- are alert to the specific needs of children in need, those with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND), those with relevant health conditions and young carers
- understand the importance of information sharing, both within the school, and with the safeguarding partners, other agencies, organisations, and practitioners
 - understand and support the school with regards to the requirements of the Prevent duty and are able to provide advice and support to staff on protecting children from the risk of radicalisation
 - are able to understand the unique risks associated with online safety and be confident that they have the relevant knowledge and up to date capability required to keep children safe whilst they are online at school
 - can recognise the additional risks that children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) face online, for example, from online bullying, grooming and radicalisation and are confident they have the capability to support children with SEND to stay safe online
- obtain access to resources and attend any relevant or refresher training courses, and
- encourage a culture of listening to children and taking account of their wishes and feelings, among all staff, in any measures the school may put in place to protect them
- ensure the school is meeting the DfE digital and technology standards.

In addition to the formal training set out above, their knowledge and skills should be refreshed (this might be via e-bulletins, meeting other designated safeguarding leads, or simply taking time to read and digest safeguarding developments) at regular intervals, as required, and at least annually, to allow them to understand and keep up with any developments relevant to their role.

Providing support to staff

Training should support the designated safeguarding lead in developing expertise, so they can support and advise staff and help them feel confident on welfare, safeguarding and child protection matters. Including monitoring and filtering. This includes specifically to:

- ensure that staff are supported during the referrals processes
- support staff to consider how safeguarding, welfare and educational outcomes are linked, including to inform the provision of academic and pastoral support

Understanding the views of children

It is important that children feel heard and understood. Therefore, designated safeguarding leads (and deputies) should be supported in developing knowledge and skills to:

- encourage a culture of listening to children and taking account of their wishes and feelings, among all staff, and in any measures the school may put in place to protect them
 - understand the difficulties that children may have in approaching staff about their circumstances and consider how to build trusted relationships which facilitate communication

Holding and sharing information

The critical importance of recording, holding, using, and sharing information effectively is set out in Parts one, two and five of this document, and therefore the designated safeguarding lead should be equipped to:

- understand the importance of information sharing, both within the school, and with other schools on transfer including in-year and between primary and secondary education, and with the safeguarding partners, other agencies, organisations and practitioners
- understand relevant data protection legislation and regulations, especially the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR)
- be able to keep detailed, accurate, secure written records of concerns and referrals and understand the purpose of this record-keeping

Staff, governors and trustees should use the DfE's data protection guidance for schools to ensure they:

- Comply with data protection law
- Develop data policies and processes
- Know what staff and pupil data to keep
- Follow good practices for preventing personal data breaches

Appendix 2: Designated looked after children (LAC) teacher responsibilities

General

The designated LAC Teacher is expected to:

- take lead responsibility for LAC at the school, ensuring that their personal, emotional and academic needs are prioritised by providing strategic leadership across the school
- act as the central point of contact for LAC in the school, ensuring the school has appropriate arrangements in place to support pupils and minimise any disruption to learning
- work with virtual school heads (VSHs) to promote the education of LAC, ensuring a whole-school culture where the personalised learning needs of every looked-after child matters
- take lead responsibility for ensuring school staff understand the ways in which LAC's learning may be affected and how the school supports the educational achievement of these pupils
- take lead responsibility for the development and implementation of LAC's personal education plans (PEPs) in partnership with others
- ensure that any safeguarding concerns regarding LAC are quickly and effectively responded to
- liaise with the SENDCO to identify and support the SEND needs of LAC, and understand how to access further assessment and support where necessary
- respond appropriately to disclosures or concerns relating to the wellbeing of a LAC pupil
- keep detailed, accurate and secure records of arrangements, and any concerns, for LAC
- monitor LAC pupils at risk of harm or those that have been subjected to harm, providing support and ensuring their welfare
- contribute to the development and review of whole-school policies and procedures in relation to LAC

Fostering a culture of inclusivity

The designated LAC teacher should promote a culture in which looked-after and previously looked-after children:

- can discuss their progress and be involved in setting their own targets, have their views taken seriously, and are supported to take responsibility for their own learning
- are prioritised in any selection of pupils who would benefit from one-to-one tuition, and that they have access to academic focused study support
- are encouraged to participate in school activities and in decision making within the school and the care system
- believe they can succeed and aspire to further and higher education or highly skilled jobs
- can discuss difficult issues (such as SEND, bullying, attendance) in a frank manner with a sympathetic and empathetic adult

Personal Education Plans

The designated LAC teacher should:

- work closely with other teachers to assess pupils' educational needs and ensure personal education plans (PEPs) are created without delay

- ensure that PEPs are effective in supporting everyone to help the looked-after child to make good educational progress
- discuss with the pupil the best way for them to make progress and involve any relevant teachers in the discussion to arrange effective provision across the whole curriculum
- take responsibility for reviewing PEPs before the statutory review, ensuring they are up-to-date and contain any new information, including whether agreed provision is being delivered
- ensure PEPs are clear about what has or has not been taken forward, noting what resources may be required to further support the pupil and how these resources may be secured
- ensure that, for pupils with SEND, PEPs work in parallel with their education, health and care (EHC) plan

Liaison

The designated LAC teacher should:

- work with services internally and externally to provide the required support for all looked after children. For example, intervention worker within school, looked after children's educational services (LACES), virtual school heads (VSHs) and police etc.
- contribute towards raising parents' awareness of the pupil premium plus and other support for LAC and encourage their involvement in deciding how the funding is used to support their child
- work directly with looked-after and previously looked-after children and their carers, parents or guardians to:
 - promote good home-school links
 - support progress by paying particular attention to effective communication with carers, parents or guardians
- ensure carers, parents or guardians understand the potential value of one-to-one tuition and are equipped to engage with it at home
- ensure carers, parents or guardians are aware of how the school teaches key skills such as reading and numeracy
- encourage high aspirations and working with the child to plan for their future success and fulfilment

Being a source of advice for teachers

The designated LAC teacher should:

- take lead responsibility for ensuring all staff members have strong awareness, training and skills relating to the specific needs of LAC and how to support them, e.g., with regard to attendance, homework and behaviour
- ensure all staff members have high expectations of LAC's learning and set targets to promote educational progress
- promote attachment and trauma awareness between staff members, ensuring they are aware of the emotional, psychological, and social effects of loss and separation from birth families and how this impacts on pupils' behaviour
- ensure all staff members understand the importance of viewing LAC as individual pupils rather than a group of pupils, and that they are treated equally
- ensure staff members are aware of the training opportunities that are available to them

- maintain an appropriate level of confidentiality whilst at the same time liaising with relevant professionals
- represent the school at meetings of designated leads and circulate the outcomes to staff members
- ensure staff members receive frequent updates regarding particularly vulnerable LAC
- work with other institutions to ensure that pupils' transition to the next stage in their education is as smooth as possible, confirming that any other appropriate institutes have all the necessary documents
- where necessary, securely transfer pupils' personal files, as well as those containing child protection issues, to other educational establishments, ensuring that confirmation of receipt is obtained

Appendix 3: Safe working practices

Propriety and behaviour

All staff are expected to:

- set high expectations and challenging targets for all pupils
- promote fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, freedom of religion, individual liberty, freedom of speech, freedom of thought, freedom of association and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs, fairness, social responsibility, liberty and equality for all
- ensure that they set expectations of the highest standards of behaviour and conduct within school, regardless of whether in class or beyond, and challenge activities by any pupil that may be considered to be of an inappropriate nature

All staff are expected to refrain from:

- making inappropriate remarks (including innuendoes) to, or about, a pupil
- discussing personal relationships with or in the presence of pupils
- discussing a pupil's personal relationships in inappropriate settings or contexts
- making unprofessional personal comments which scapegoat, demean or humiliate, or might be interpreted as such

All staff are aware that inappropriate behaviour towards pupils is unacceptable and that their conduct towards pupils must be beyond reproach.

In addition, staff should understand that, under the Sexual Offences Act 2003, it is an offence for a person over the age of 18 to have a sexual relationship with a person under the age of 18, where that person is in a position of trust, even if the relationship is consensual. This means that any sexual activity between a member of the school staff and a pupil under 18 is a criminal offence, even if that pupil is over the age of consent.

Dress and appearance

All staff are expected to wear clothing which:

- promotes a positive and professional image
- is appropriate to their role
- is not likely to be viewed as offensive, revealing or provocative
- does not distract, cause embarrassment, or give rise to misunderstanding
- is absent of any political or otherwise contentious slogans
- is not considered to be discriminatory

Rewards and gifts

All staff are expected to abide by the Gifts and Hospitality policy which clearly sets out when and how rewards and gifts may or may not be used/accepted.

Infatuations

All staff are expected to report any indications (verbal, written or physical) that suggest a pupil may be infatuated with a member of staff. This must be reported to a senior leader.

Photography, videos and other creative arts

All staff are expected to:

- refrain from taking images of a child's injury, bruising or similar (e.g., following a disclosure of abuse) even if requested by children's social care; or making audio recordings of a child's disclosure
- refrain from making any visual recordings of pupils (still or moving), without the prior consent of a senior leader
- seek parental consent for a photograph/video to be taken or published
- ensure pupil's consent is obtained for the use of images/recordings after the age of 13 years old. This is in line with the Data Protection guidance
- ensure that the storage and distribution of such images/recordings is approved by senior leaders and care is taken to avoid illicit use of the images
- ensure that all images/recordings are available for scrutiny in order to screen for acceptability
- be able to justify images/recordings of children in their possession
- avoid making images/recordings in one-to-one situations
- refrain from taking images/recordings of pupils using personal mobile phones

Social contact

All staff are expected to:

- always gain the approval of a senior leader in advance of any planned social contact with pupils or parents
- advise a senior leader of any (unplanned), social contact they have with a pupil which might cause concern
- report and record any situation which they feel might compromise the school or their own professional standing
- refrain from sending personal communication to pupils e.g., letters and cards unless agreed with a senior leader

Communication using technology

All staff are expected to refrain from:

- passing personal contact details to pupils including email, home, or mobile phone numbers
- any communication with pupils which may be construed as grooming
- making any visual recordings of pupils (still or moving), without the prior consent of a senior leader
- using any personal equipment when communicating with pupils

For the purposes of exchanging coursework or homework only, it is permitted for staff to exchange their school email address with pupils. However, any correspondence whilst using school email must be very cautious and perfunctory to avoid being misconstrued.

Physical contact

All staff are expected to:

- refrain from touching pupils in a way which may be considered as indecent or for the gratification of the adult or the pupil
- avoid any gratuitous or unnecessary physical contact with pupils (this includes horseplay, tickling or stroking the head etc.)
- be prepared to explain actions and accept that all physical contact is open to scrutiny
- always encourage pupils, where possible, to complete self-care tasks independently
- avoid using physical contact as a reward (this includes hugs and pats on back etc.)
- ensure that physical contact is never secretive or represents a misuse of authority

Behaviour management and physical restraint

All staff are expected to:

- try to defuse situations before they escalate
- ensure all rewards and sanctions are within the school's agreed Behaviour policy
- ensure parents are informed of all sanctions
- avoid the use of sarcasm or demeaning and insensitive comments towards pupils

Please see the Behaviour policy for full details on behaviour management strategies upheld by the school.

Some situations may give rise to the need for physical intervention. However, school staff must ensure that they have considered the pupil's safeguarding and welfare when restraint is used especially on a pupil with SEND. The decision on whether or not to physically intervene is down to the professional judgement of the staff member concerned and should always depend on the individual circumstances. If an alternative method of control and restraint is possible then these methods should be used first. If physical contact is the only suitable method, then the use of 'reasonable force' is permitted.

Force is usually used either to 'control' or 'restrain'. This can range from guiding a pupil to safety by the arm through to more extreme circumstances such as breaking up a fight or where a pupil needs to be restrained to prevent violence or injury. The key point to always remember is that 'reasonable in the circumstances' means using no more force than is needed for that situation.

The following list is not exhaustive but provides some examples of situations where reasonable force can be used:

- to remove disruptive children from the classroom where they have refused to follow an instruction to do so
- to prevent a pupil behaving in a way that disrupts a school event or a school trip or visit
- to prevent a pupil leaving the classroom where allowing the pupil to leave would risk their safety or lead to behaviour that disrupts the behaviour of others
- to prevent a pupil from attacking a member of staff or another pupil, or to stop a fight
- to restrain a pupil at risk of harming themselves through physical outbursts

Under no circumstances should staff use force as a punishment. Please see the school's Positive Handling policy for full guidance.

One-to-one situations

All staff should:

- avoid meeting with pupils in remote, secluded areas of the school
- ensure that there is visual access and/or an open door in one-to-one situations
- inform other staff of the meeting beforehand, assessing the need to have them present or close by
- avoid any one-to-one situations with pupils that may result in an interpretation of secrecy
- always report any situation where a child becomes distressed or angry to a senior leader

Intimate care

Some pupils may require intimate care – this may include support with toileting or removing soiled clothing. In supporting such children, staff should:

- ensure they have completed appropriate training
- take account of the school's Supporting Pupils with Medical Conditions policy
- adhere to a care plan agreed with parents for pupils requiring intimate care
- encourage pupils to act as independently as possible
- ensure that another member of staff is in close vicinity if intimate care is required
- record any instances of intimate care, justifying the need for any variations from the care plan
- share the need for intimate care with parents, if irregular or unexpected

Toileting, Showering and Changing

General Principles

- Shower facilities for boys and girls should be separate, clean and well-maintained so that pupils' health and safety, privacy and dignity are not put at risk
- Suitable toilet and washing facilities should be provided for the sole use of pupils
- Separate toilet facilities for boys and girls aged 8 years or over should be provided except where the toilet facility is provided in a room that can be secured from the inside and that is intended for use by one pupil at a time
- Suitable changing accommodation and showers should be provided for pupils aged 11 years or over at the start of the school year who receive physical education
- Where separate facilities are provided for pupils who are disabled, they may also be used by other pupils, staff, supply staff, volunteers and visitors, whether or not they are disabled
- As far as possible, members of staff should supervise or assist pupils of the same gender
- Wherever possible designated single sex changing room or areas should be used. If this is not possible and boys and girls change together, in a classroom for example, consideration should be given to utilising furniture or screens to provide discrete areas

All staff are expected to:

- avoid any physical contact when children are in a state of undress
- avoid any visually intrusive behaviour and, where there are changing rooms, announce their intention of entering
- avoid remaining in the room unless a pupil's needs require it (judgement will be based on the age and development needs of the pupils)

- take into account the needs of pupils from different religions, beliefs and cultural backgrounds

Where pupils need assistance, staff are expected to:

- take account of the intimate care section held within the 'Supporting Pupils with Medical Conditions' policy
- encourage pupils to be as independent as possible, giving verbal help before offering assistance
- provide assistance openly, not out of sight of others

All staff must not:

- change in the same place as children
- shower with children

When off-site showering and changing arrangements are in place:

- the above guidance will apply
- pupils will not share changing/toilet facilities with members of the public
- where changing facilities are shared with pupils from another school, adults from both schools will make appropriate arrangements and properly risk assess together

Visual access to classrooms

All staff are expected to ensure that there is always visual access and/or an open door to their classrooms.

Where staff feel the need to cover the visual access to their door temporarily, they must be able to justify doing so on child protection grounds and must ensure that there is a second member of staff in the classroom at the time.

Administration of medication

In dispensing medication to pupils, staff should:

- take account of the 'Supporting Pupils with Medical Conditions' policy
- ensure that they are authorised to dispense medication
- ensure that parental consent has been secured and recorded
- ensure that all medicines are stored in a locked cupboard, or if refrigerated, in an area not accessible to pupils
- record the storage, dispensing and disposal of medication
- not force a pupil to take medicine if they refuse to do so - in such a case, parents should be informed immediately and emergency services called if needed

Staff must also ensure that all personal medication is stored securely in a locked area at all times.

Transporting pupils in staff cars

Pupils should only be transported in staff cars as a matter of last resort – where alternative modes of transport are unavailable and only when the pupil is not distressed in any way.

Normally, this will mean when taking pupils home – trips should not be planned with the intention of using staff vehicles for transport. In transporting pupils using a staff vehicle:

- the consent of a senior leader should be secured on each occasion
- there should be at least one adult additional to the driver acting as an escort
- the member of staff should have 'Business' car insurance on their vehicle
- the member of staff should ensure that the car is roadworthy
- the pupil should sit at the back of the car – and be instructed to wear a seat belt

Appendix 4: Safeguarding and Prevent Checklist

Please ensure all checks are complete.

Please be aware this is not an exhaustive list of all safeguarding measures.

No.	Key Actions	School Lead	RAG
Safeguarding Policy, Training, Procedures and Record Keeping
1.	Ensure the Safeguarding Policy is fully compliant with government guidance and includes the Prevent duty, Channel process and FGM Duty.
2.	Ensure the Safeguarding policy is available on staff shared drive alongside the supplementary government guides.
3.	Ensure Safeguarding policy is uploaded to school website.
4.	Ensure Safeguarding policy reflects the region, for example includes Prevent lead/local children's centre.
5.	Ensure Parent Handbook outlines the school's approach to safeguarding.
6.	Ensure there is evidence that Safeguarding Policy and KCSIE Part 1 and Part 5 has been disseminated to ALL staff at annual whole school training (e.g. registers, handouts).
7.	Ensure Annual Safeguarding Declaration has been signed by all staff and all understand the responsibilities for safeguarding.
8.	Retain evidence of any safeguarding updates shared with staff outside of the annual training (e.g. registers, handouts).

If the allegation/concern relates to a specific incident include the following details

Date of incident
Time of incident
Location of incident
Were there any other witnesses? If so, include names

Has the staff member reporting the concerns had any previous concerns regarding this staff member/volunteer, or have concerns been raised previously?	YES/NO
If YES, please add further detail below

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE PRINCIPAL/TRUST

Is the allegation/concern likely to meet the harms threshold?	YES/NO
Rationale for reaching this decision

If YES, complete the Safeguarding Risk Assessment – Allegations against staff form (Appendix 7a) to assess the level of risk and follow the steps outlined in the Safeguarding Allegations Flowchart (Appendix 8).

If NO, complete the 'Agreed Actions' section below and follow the steps outlined in the Safeguarding Allegations Flowchart (Appendix 8).

AGREED ACTIONS

Consideration should be given to appropriate actions that will support the reduction of risk, for example, training and development, discussion with the employee regarding concerns, review of policies or processes, peer support and monitoring of future behaviour.

Safeguarding Risk Assessment Form – Allegations Against Staff

CONFIDENTIAL

To be completed by the principal (or member of the Trust if it relates to the principal) if an allegation/concern may meet the harms threshold.

The purpose of the safeguarding risk assessment is to identify:

- If there is any risk to children, children and young people or adults with whom the employee has contact with, in a position of trust
- Whether the allegation/concern meets the harms threshold
 - How any risk identified should be best managed
- Whether the employee is safe to continue in their role
- Any future implications should the employee continue in their role

RISK ASSESSMENT FACTORS

On the basis of the evidence available, professional judgement and experience, the level of risk should be assessed as follows for the appropriate risk assessment factors below:

- Low risk (L)
- Moderate risk (M)
 - High risk (H)
- Severe risk (S)

Risk Assessment Factor:	Risk L/M/H/S
What is the specific allegation/offences? Assess the risk based on the gravity of the allegations or offence
Is the matter being dealt with by another professional agency e.g. Police or Local Authority Safeguarding Officer?	This question does not need to be rated.
If the matter is currently being dealt with by another agency, what is the current position of the investigation or intervention?	This question does not need to be rated.
How severe is the harm (threatened or inflicted) and are there any children and/or other vulnerable adults involved? Assess severity of harm threatened or inflicted
Is there evidence to suggest that the harm is likely to continue or escalate? Assess the risk based on the likelihood of the harm continuing or escalating
Is there evidence to suggest that the harm was premeditated? Assess the likelihood of the harm involving premeditation
Is there evidence to suggest that the harm was accompanied by sustained threats or coercion? Assess the likelihood of the harm involving threats or coercion
Is there a pattern of history for this type of behaviour? Assess the level of risk based on previous behaviour, frequency and severity
What is the risk of harm posed to other children or adults? What is the likelihood of harm to the child or adults
Have there been any previous concerns or complaints?

Assess the level of risk based on previous history, frequency and seriousness of issues
What has been the impact on the employee's health and wellbeing?
What is the level of risk based on the employee's current health
Is the employee receiving any medical support? If not, is this intended?
Assess the level of risk incurred from medication or existing treatment plan

RISK ASSESSMENT SUMMARY

Overall assessment of risks identified, including the risk to others:

Views and recommendations of professional agency e.g., Police/Local Authority or Safeguarding Officer
Views and recommendations of Risk Assessor
Views of Individual (if appropriate)

On the basis of the evidence available, professional judgement and experience, the level of overall risk should be assessed as follows for the appropriate risk assessment factors below:

Low risk (L): No safeguarding action is required and/or safeguarding issues have been addressed

Moderate risk (M): Safeguarding Protection Plan is required to manage the risk and/or remains in place in this area/overall

High risk (H): Safeguarding Protection Plan requires implementation. Legal action is being taken. The behaviour is persistent and/or deliberate

Severe risk (S): Life may be in danger, risk of major injury or serious physical or mental ill harm. The incidents are increasing in frequency and/or severity.

Overall Risk
Low/Moderate/High/Severe

AGREED ACTIONS

Consideration should be given to appropriate actions that will support the reduction of risk, for example, training and development, supervision, peer support alternative duties and access to occupational health services. In some circumstances suspension may be required to manage risk.

Appendix 13: Safeguarding procedures in the event of a partial or full school closure

Context

Where there is a partial or full closure of the school, there is an expectation that there will be regular contact and support for vulnerable children. Where possible, children identified as being vulnerable will attend school.

Vulnerable children include children who are supported by social care and those with safeguarding and welfare needs, including those with child in need plans or child protection plans, looked after children, young carers, disabled children and those with education, health and care (EHC) plans. School leaders may also want to include other children facing social and emotional difficulties.

Eligibility for free school meals in itself should not be the determining factor in assessing vulnerability.

The school will continue to work with and support children's social workers to help protect vulnerable children. This includes working with and supporting children's social workers and the local authority virtual school head (VSH) for looked-after and previously looked-after children. The lead persons for this will be the school's DSL and designated teacher for looked after children.

Designated safeguarding lead arrangements

There will be trained DSL available either remotely or in person.

In addition to the above, a senior leader will assume responsibility for co-ordinating safeguarding on site.

The DSL will continue to engage with social workers and attend all multi-agency meetings, which can be held remotely.

Supporting children not in school

When children are unable to attend school, the school will continue to follow procedures for maintaining regular contact with pupils and families, including home visits where necessary.

Where there is a local lockdown requiring pupils to remain at home, the school will follow the guidance outlined above and offer immediate remote education.

Where required, individual remote education plans will be in place.

We recognise that younger children and some children with SEND may not be able to access remote education without adult support, and so the school will work with families to ensure the curriculum is appropriate for these children.

Remote education, where needed, is high quality and aligns as closely as possible with in-school provision.

We recognise that school is a protective factor for children and young people, and a school closure can negatively affect their mental health and wellbeing and that of their parents/carers. Teachers will take family wellbeing into account when setting expectations of pupils' work when they are at home.

School will continue to signpost children and their parents/carers, to a range of appropriate sources of support, within school and beyond school.

Supporting children in school

School will continue to be a safe space for all children to attend and flourish.

The principal will ensure that appropriate staff are on site and that staff to pupil ratios are appropriate, to maximise safety.

Where the school has concerns about the impact of the absence of staff, such as the Designated Safeguarding Lead or first aiders, the principal will discuss them immediately with the Chair of Trustees.

Following a school closure, it is recognised that staff, parents/carers and children may experience some degree of anxiety about the return to school.

The school will plan to develop an inclusive culture so that everyone returns to a positive working environment. School will refer to the guidance on mental health and behaviour to help identify children who might need additional support, and to put this support in place.

Pastoral staff will be available for children and will be given the time to provide support as required.

The school will continue to signpost children and parents/carers, to a range of appropriate sources of support, in school and beyond school.

Reporting a concern

The school will continue to use its normal referral processes for any children where it has concerns, in line with the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.

The school will continue to use its normal referral processes for any adults working with children where it has concerns, in line with the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.

Attendance recording and absence monitoring

For appropriate coding of pupils, the school will follow guidance as set out by the DfE.

Absence procedures for phone calls and home visits will be followed in line with the Safeguarding guidance for schools.

Safeguarding training and induction

The DSL will communicate with staff any new local arrangements, so they know what to do if they are worried about a child.

All staff will maintain the view that 'it could happen here' and report any concern to the DSL or Deputy DSL.

Recruitment

It remains essential that people who are unsuitable are not allowed to enter the children's workforce or gain access to children. When recruiting new staff, the school will continue to follow the safer recruitment processes Safeguarding Policy, and including, as appropriate, relevant sections in part 3 of Keeping children safe in education (2026).

Where new staff are recruited, or new volunteers enter the school, they will continue to be provided with a safeguarding induction.

Online safety in schools

The school will continue to provide a safe environment including online. This includes the use of an online filtering system.

Where children are using computers in school, appropriate supervision will be in place.

Online safety away from school

It is important that all staff who interact with children, including online, continue to look out for signs that a child may be at risk. Any such concerns should be dealt with as per the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and where appropriate referrals should still be made to children's social care and as required, the police.

The school will ensure that there is a risk assessment in place relating to remote learning, which covers relevant aspects of safeguarding.

All staff are required to uphold the code of conduct that specifies professional expectations including language, behaviour and dress relating to online teaching.

All pupils are required to uphold the code of conduct specifying expectations of language, behaviour and dress relating to online learning.

All parents are required to uphold the code of conduct that includes safeguarding, including the expectation that they will not share material relating to their children's learning on social media.

Pupils will generally be taught in classes or groups. Occasionally, one-to-one teaching may be required. If this is the case, an individual risk assessment will be completed by the school focused on keeping both the pupil and the staff member safe.

The school will reassure themselves that any teaching/learning software and/or platforms are suitable and raise no privacy issues.

Any concerns about aspects of conduct raised in lessons by staff or pupils must be referred to the principal.

Pupil behaviour

Where the school receives a report of bullying, racism, or child on child abuse, it will follow the principles as set out in line with the Safeguarding and Child Protection and Behaviour policies.

The school will listen to and work with the young person, parents/carers and any multi-agency partner required to ensure the safety and security of that young person.
