

Pupil Code of Conduct

We expect all pupils to take responsibility for their own behaviour in line with our core values:

We Care, We Challenge, We Commit

For each of these values, we have established a set of school rules which set out our positive expectations of pupils' behaviour.

This Code of Conduct and the rules and Charter which support it are intended to ensure that all pupils:

- can work to the best of their ability and achieve their full potential;
- are safe, happy and well;
- develop good character and are prepared for adult life and work;
- take an active role in being a responsible citizen in our school and wider community.

We Care – Being a responsible citizen in Fulwood and our wider community

- We are approachable, caring and inclusive
- We respect one another and show kindness to all
- We make the right choices, even in difficult circumstances
- We speak politely and use our manners
- We are responsible for our own physical and mental well-being and support others
- We help other pupils, teachers and other adults where we can
- We show tolerance for other faiths and religions and speak up for causes such as anti-bullying, equality and the environment
- We take part in charity events and volunteering in our community

We Challenge – Working together for excellence

- We challenge ourselves to be the best we can be
- We take opportunities to help each other in our studies
- We understand the need for democracy and take part in school campaigns, debate and events
- We take time to find out about each other and our interests
- We own up to our mistakes and accept any consequences
- We show resilience when we find tasks hard
- We use our individual liberty wisely and recognise that the actions of individuals and small groups can create great change
- We rise to a challenge

We Commit - Aspiring to be our best

- We are organised, efficient and set high expectations for ourselves and others
- We work hard and take pride in our work
- We have excellent attendance and punctuality
- We have the highest standards and always wear the right uniform
- We work hard in lessons and complete homework
- We participate in extra-curricular activities
- We read every day
- We follow all school rules and the Rules of Law

Kindness and Respect Charter.

Our Kindness and Respect Charter also forms part of our Pupil Code of Conduct. The pupil body has taken full responsibility for writing the Charter and has pledged to follow this to ensure the Academy has a culture built on Kindness and Respect for others.

1. We persevere and show resilience and determination in everything we do
2. We will show a good attitude to learning and will celebrate this with our teachers
3. We look after our school environment.
4. We respect everyone's opinions and ideas
5. We smile at each other - it's contagious
6. We think before we speak and understand that words can hurt
7. We have high expectations in how we present ourselves
8. We care for one another, are kind and help people when they are struggling
9. We commit to being our best and work towards our goals
10. We challenge ourselves to be active and responsible citizens both in and out of school

By attending Fulwood Academy you agree to abide by the Pupil Code of Conduct.
